The Destinations... Rajasthan and The Golden Triangle

India - where will you find a more colourful land? The sights and sounds will excite you; the palaces, forts and old walled cities will thrill you; the varied and exotic scenery will captivate you and the warm and smiling people will charm you. Many images, but few are more powerful than the heritage of the Moghul Empire in Rajasthan where much of our tour is based – a legendary land defined by the patchwork of kingdoms and principalities that were, till independence, ruled by maharajas, rajas, ranas and rawals. From the cackle of it's colour charged towns and cities to the luminous splendour of it's sun-kissed desert and it's forts and palaces (several of which have been converted into splendid Heritage hotels and our accommodation will include some of these), Rajasthan is romantic and historic India wrapped in gaudy royal robes where bards still roam the countryside, picking out complex tunes on single-stringed instruments, and sing of heroic battles, chivalry and sacrifices.

You will see Delhi, the political and cultural capital and a captivating combination of ancient and modern in contrasting Old and New Delhi. Museums, monuments to the myriad of dynasties that have established their capital in Delhi over the centuries, great shopping and wonderful restaurants.

Travelling west, first travel to Jodhpur, originally capital of the kingdom of Marwar and bordering the Thar Desert, with it's Meherangarh Fort dominating the once indomitable Blue City below, where you can bargain for a pair of boxed cuff trousers (the original jodhpurs...) and historic regalia. Heading south, we stop in Ranakpur (one of the holiest places in the Jain faith) to marvel at its dazzling 15th century temple complex made of milk white marble, before coming to Udaipur, the Venice of the East, a seductive, gated Rajput city situated romantically on the banks of Lake Pichola with it's floating Lake Palace and palaces and temples at every turn. Then onto Deogarh, one of the best kept secrets in this area, with it's Vishna & Jain temples from the Gupta period and renowned school of miniature painting and then to Pushkar, a lake town with many bathing ghats and temples and an important Hindu pilgrimage centre.

No tour of India is complete without visiting the "Golden Triangle" and its famed cities of Jaipur and Agra. Jaipur, the "City of Victory", is the vibrant capital of Rajasthan with its magnificent palaces and temple, exquisite gardens and bustling bazaars, and the impressive pink Amber Fort. Then, on the way to Agra and the Taj Mahal, stop in Fatehpur Sikri – a masterpiece of Muslim architecture and unique as an almost intact Mughal city. Satisfied and marveling at the snapshot of so much of India's medieval and religious cultures. Finally, end your journey in Varanasi, set on the Ganges - as old a city as Babylon and one of the holiest pilgrimage centers of India.

The detailed itinerary...

Day 1 : Oct 25, 2019 (Fri) - Depart Toronto for Delhi

Day 2 : Oct 26 – Arrive Delhi

Arrive Delhi by International flight.

You will be met on your arrival and then be transferred to your hotel for check-in.

Overnight in Delhi.

Day 3 : Oct 27 – Delhi (B,L,D)

A city of great character, of contrasts and convolutions – this is Delhi, the capital city of India. A city with antiquity dating back over 2,000 years, it is also a modern metropolis with fast cars and neon lit shopping malls. So varied are the shades of Delhi's different faces, it is difficult to grasp it in a short span of time. It's history encompasses all the various kings and emperors who fixed their royal citadels here – Indraprastha, Lal Kot, Quila Rai Pithora, Siri, Jahanpanah, Tughlakabad, Ferozabad, Dinpanah, Delhi Sher Shahi or then Shahjahanabad. But, combined and integrated into one, these 'new cities' have always been called Delhi and howsoever many names it may have acquired, Delhi has always been intrinsically identified with power and imperial sway.

Breakfast at the hotel. After some free time in the morning to acclimatize from your international flight, the rest of the day will be spent on a sightseeing tour of New Delhi.

The New Delhi area reflects the legacy the British left behind. The division between New and Old Delhi is the division between the capitals of the British and the Mughals respectively. The division in the walled city and New Delhi also marks the division in the life-styles. The walled city is all tradition where one will be able to glean a past life-style in all its facets, colors and spells. New Delhi in contrast, is a city trying to live up to the best of 21st century standards.

Drive past the imposing India Gate, the Parliament building and the Rastrapathi Bhawan, the President's Residence. Continue to visit the Qutub Minar, which is the tallest stone tower in India. The Qutub Minar was started in 1199 AD by Qutub-ud-Din Aibak and completed by the sultan's successor and son-in-law, Iltutmish. The building is 72.5 m high and has 379 steps from the bottom to the top. The Minar is tapering with the diameter of the base is 14.3 m while at the top floor it is 2.7 m. The Qutub Minar is still the highest stone tower as well as one of the finest Islamic structures ever raised in India.

Lunch, and your Welcome Dinner, will be taken at one of many of Delhi's fine restaurants.

After dinner, there will be a drive around the city to witness the famous Diwali celebration and lighting at various spots.

Diwali, or Dipawali, is India's biggest and most important holiday of the year. The festival gets its name from the row (awali) of clay lamps (deepa) that Indians light outside their homes to symbolize the inner light that protects from spiritual darkness. This festival is as important to Hindus as the Christmas holiday is to Christians.

Over the centuries, Diwali has become a national festival that is enjoyed by most Indians regardless of faith: Hindus, Jains, Buddhists, and Sikhs.

Hindus interpret the Diwali story based upon where they live:

In Northern India they celebrate the story of King Rama's return to Ayodhya after he defeated Ravana by lighting rows of clay lamps.

Southern India celebrates it as the day that Lord Krishna defeated the demon Narakasura.

In Western India the festival marks the day that Lord Vishnu, the Preserver (one of the main gods of the Hindu trinity) sent the demon King Bali to rule the nether world.

In all interpretations, one common thread rings true—the festival marks the victory of good over evil.

Overnight in Delhi.

Day 4 : Oct 28 - Delhi (B,L,D)

Ayurveda provides an integrated approach to preventing and treating illness through lifestyle interventions and natural therapies and is based on herbal remedies to treat various human ailments against major human diseases. Sights include the vast Red Fort, built in 1648, and the Jama Masjid, the greatest mosque in India and completed in 1658 by Shah Jahan who also built the Taj Mahal. Visit "Chandni Chowk" or Silver Street, experiencing the sights and sounds of this very busy avenue heading west from the Fort. Chandni Chowk - literally means "moonlit crossroads" and an area which best represents the "super-Oriental" - the glory and the guile; the grandeur and the grime, with its crowded bazaars, twisting lanes, maze of small streets strange aromas, the pungent odour of Oriental spices, the cries of shopkeepers, coolies and "rickshaw-walas" and the clatter and whirr of furious industry. Take a cycle rickshaw ride – the ultimate way to experience a journey through the streets and alleys of bustling streets of Old Delhi.

You will also visit, Raj Ghat, the simple memorial to Mahatma Gandhi. The memorial is a black marble platform that marks the spot of Gandhi's cremation on 31 January 1948. It is left open to the sky while an eternal flame burns perpetually at one end. It is located on the banks of the river Yamuna in Delhi in India on one of the main arteries of the city - officially known as Mahatma Gandhi Road.

The cenotaphs of members of the royal family who have died since Jaswant are close by his memorial; those who preceded him are remembered by chhatris at Mandor. This south-facing spot is also the best place from which to photograph the fort, looming above the sheer rocky Mehrangarh plateau. Also visit the museum in the Umaid Bhawan Palace.

Cradled in a verdant valley in the valley in the Aravalli Hills, on the banks of the river Maghai, stands one of the five holiest places of the Jain faith, 15th century Ranakpur. Just 96 km from Udaipur, Ranakpur is renowned for its magnificent temples of dazzling white marble. The four-temple complex, far away from any town or village, is completely in harmony with the ascetic ideology of Jainism. The architectural highlight is Jain Temple with its sequence of elegant domes, turrets and cupolas that rise majestically from the hillside, supported by more than 1,400 marble pillars adorned with breathtakingly intricate carvings.

Day 8 : Nov 1 - Udaipur (B,L,D)

The city's palaces, havelis, temples set it apart from the rest of the cities. It is also popular for its crafts, performing arts and its famed miniature paintings. The Lake Palace (Jag Niwas) located in the middle of Pichola Lake is the finest example of architectural and cultural marvel. The grand City Palace on the banks of the lake along with the Monsoon Palace (Sajjan Garh) on the hill above enhances the beauty of this magnificent city. You can see the city from a boat or from the rooftop of palaces, the view is marvelous, it makes you forget the world. The smooth rolling hills that surround Udaipur are as overpowering as the city itself.*

Maharana Udai Singh founded Udaipur in 1559 AD. According to a legend Udai Singh was guided by a holy man meditating on the hill near Pichola Lake to establish his capital on that very spot. Surrounded by Aravali Ranges, forests and lakes this place was less vulnerable to external invasion than Chittaurgarh. Maharana Udai Singh died in 1572 and was succeeded by Maharana Pratap who valiantly defended Udaipur from Mughal attacks.

After breakfast you will proceed to visit the vast and exquisite City Palace, a well-fortified, majestic white monument. The main entrance, a triple-arched gate named the Tripolia, was built in 1725 and is a marvel. The Suraj Gokhada, the Balcony of the Sun, where the Suryavanshi Maharanas of Mewar presented themselves in times of trouble to the people to restore their confidence, is also a fascinating sight.

Later visit the Jagdish Temple, a 16th-century temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu, it is the largest and most splendid temple in Udaipur, as well as Sahelion-Ki-Bari (Queen's resort for her friends).

In the afternoon enjoy a cruise by private boat on the placid waters of Lake Pichola. Deogarh is situated in the rugged hills of Aravallis, which makes gentle treks and bird watching an ideal way to see the surrounding area, including the Raghosagar Lake, with the palace on its banks, which attracts numerous migratory birds. It also has a bazaar, which is particularly good for textiles. It is also renowned as a school of miniature painting.

After breakfast leave for Deogarh. En route, visit Sas Bahu Temple dating back to the 10th century. The term 'Sas-Bahu' suggests 'Mother-in-law and Daughter-in-law' respectively. The temple is dedicated to Lord Vishnu and it is made in two structures, one by a mother-in-law and another, by a daughter-in-law. The temple of Sas is comparatively larger than that of the Bahu. The 'Bahu' temple has an octagonal ceiling, which is adorned with beautifully carved eight intricate female figures. The 'Sas' temple has a torana (archway) in its front and it is believed that the image of the Lord Vishnu was swung from the torana along with hymns in the praise of lord on ceremonial occasions. Both the temples are constructed on a common platform facing towards the east direction and are famous for their wonderful carvings.

In the afternoon, enjoy a village walk before visiting the Fort Seengh Sagar to see the magnificent miniature paintings. Some Deogarh miniatures adorn the personal collection of the present Rawat. Frescoes of this art form can also be seen on the fort walls. Several rooms are decorated with murals done by local painters after whom the Deogarh School of painting has acquired fame the world over. The Rural Ramble is a drive through a pastoral setting where one explores the natural surrounding with people tending to their fields and cattle and living in complete harmony with nature. Visit a cave temple – a cavernous rock in which is ensconced a shrine of Lord Shiva. The top of this rock offers a panoramic view of landscape of black volcanic rocks interspersed with rocks. The drive finishes with drinks and Indian hors d'oeuvres at the side of one of the area's lakes which attract a lot of the local migratory birds and small animals that are lovely to watch with the sun set as a back drop.

Day 11 : Nov 4 - Deogarh – Pushkar (B,L,D)

Amongst the grandeur of Rajasthan, discover a unique gem – Pushkar a mellow and serene little town right on the edge of the desert. Lord Brahma, the creator of the world in a search for his abode on earth, performed the supremely spiritual vedic yagna at Pushkar. It is thus the site of the only Brahma Temple in the world. A city of Pilgrimage from time immemorial with over 500 temples and ghats, Pushkar begets a legacy of timeless architectural heritage and radiates an ambience of peace and spirituality that casts a lure to visit again and again. Apart from its religious significance, Pushkar is known for its Cattle and Camel fair held every year in the month of Kartik (October/November), which attracts visitors in their thousands.

After breakfast leave for Pushkar arriving in time for lunch at the hotel.

After lunch at the hotel you will be taken on a walking tour of Pushkar where you will visit the sacred temple of Lord Brahma (the only temple in India that is dedicated to Brahma) and view the pilgrims at the religious bathing ghats. Pushkar, with as many as 400 temples and 52 ghats is similar to Varanasi and the Ganges but more tranquil and a little more reserved. Devout Hindus believe that it is essential to visit Pushkar at least once in their lifetime and no pilgrimage is considered complete without a dip in the holy Pushkar lake. After your guided walking tour, there will also be plenty of time to explore the village, walk down into the traditional bathing ghats and bargain at the towns plethora of shops clinging to the side of the lake.

Dinner and overnight at the hotel in Pushkar.

Day 12 : Nov 5 - Pushkar – Jaipur (B,L,D)

Yoga and Ayurvedic medicine are complimentary sister sciences and. generally a person undergoing Ayurvedic treatments is advised to practice Yoga and Meditation since it helps isolate the mind from all thoughts, worries and anxieties. While Ayurveda deals chiefly with the health of the body and mind, Yoga deals with spiritual health.

After returning to the hotel for breakfast, your tour of Rajasthan continues with a drive to Jaipur. On the way out of Pushkar, you will make a stop at one of the Sikh temples in the area. The Sikh religion emerged during the early 16th century in the state of Punjab in North India. It propounds monotheism, i.e. worship of one God. It also opposes the caste system and believes that all men (and women) are equal. Their founder, Guru Nanak, had early leanings to both Muslim and Hindu beliefs and the ideas of karma and rebirth from Hinduism are accepted. Though the Sikhs constitute less than 2 percent of the Indian population, they have become a distinct element in the configuration of the Indian religious tradition and the Indian society and are a distinctive culture with their flowing beards and colorful turbans.

En route to Jaipur, stop for lunch in the village of Kisangarh with its curious, and colourful, local inhabitants. Then continue your drive to Jaipur arriving late afternoon.

Dinner and overnight at the hotel in Jaipur.

Day 13 : Nov 6 - Jaipur (B,L,D)

Popularly known as the Pink City, Jaipur was founded in 1727 AD by one of the greatest rulers of the Kachhawaha clan, the astronomer king Sawai Jai Singh. The pink color was used at the time of making to create an impression of red sandstone buildings of Mughal cities - and repainted in 1876, during the visit of the Prince of Wales. Also known as the 'The city of victory', Jaipur presides over the fascinating desert state and its people: surrounded by rugged hills, each crowned by a formidable fort; and beautiful palaces, mansions and gardens dotted throughout its precincts. The palaces and forts of yesteryear that were witness to royal processions and splendour are now living monuments and except for the busy traffic of bicycles, cars and buses, little seems to have changed with a timeless quality to Jaipur's bazaars and its people.

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be driven just outside Jaipur to the ancient capital of Amber to see the fabulous Amber Fort. Maharaja Mansingh, Mughal Emperor Akbar's most successful General, started the construction of Amber Fort in the 17th century. Before the City Palace was constructed in Jaipur, Amber was the seat of power. The fort is surrounded by fortified battlements and overlooks the Moat Lake. Ruins and remains are spread over the Aravalli hills and sprawling crenulated walls lattice the surrounding area. Visit the Jagmandir or the Hall of victory glittering with mirrors, Jai Mahal and Temple of Kali.

At the foot of the hill you will mount your caparisoned elephant for the slow but steady climb up to the main gate, making your entrance in the time honoured fashion. The Fort, completed in the early 18th century, took over 100 years to build and now, although deserted, offers a fascinating insight into the lifestyle of the Moghul ruling families.

Lunch at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, continue the city tour of Jaipur, including the imposing City Palace, still home to the Maharaja, although several of the rooms are now open to the public and many antiques and artifacts belonging to the ruling family are housed here, including a collection of weaponry. You will also visit the Hawa Mahal, "Palace of the Winds", and, if time permits, the Royal Observatory to see the vast astronomical instruments.

Finally, visit the local S.O.S Children's Village to view the facilities and where you will be able to provide medical advice to the caregivers. SOS Children's Villages is the world's largest private child welfare organization operating 400 villages in 131 countries. SOS Children's Villages of India is a non-profit, non-government, voluntary organization, committed to the care of children in need. The aim and objective of SOS-India is to provide long term family-based care to parentless, homeless and abandoned children and to strengthen disadvantaged families as a preventive measure against abandonment and social neglect of children. Every child lives in a 'family' house with trained local women serving as 'mothers'.

Day 14 : Nov 7 - Jaipur – Agra (B,L,D)

Breakfast at the hotel.

In the morning -

Physicians will visit the Sawai Man Singh Hospital in Jaipur to continue to learn about the Indian medical system. Sawai Man Singh Hospital is the biggest government hospital in the state and it is one of the few government "super speciality" hospitals. The construction of the hospital building began in 1934 and the hospital is named after Sawai Man Singh II, then King of Jaipur. The hospital also provides practical training to the students of the Sawai Man Singh Medical College.

<http://jaipursearch.com/medical/smsghospital.htm>

Non-physicians will have free time to continue exploring the city maybe taking in one of Jaipur's many shopping areas.

Depart for Agra and, after lunch en-route, visit Fatehpur Sikri, the deserted red sandstone city, built by the Great Mughal Emperor Akbar as his capital and palace in the late 16th century. It was abandoned soon after it was built when the local wells went dry and it remains today in much the same condition that it was over 300 years ago. It is complete with palaces and mosques and used to be a town larger than London when it was originally constructed. Now it is an extraordinary place to wander around with its buildings in near perfect condition.

Continue driving to Agra.

Dinner and overnight at the hotel in Agra.

Day 15 : Nov 8 - Agra (B,L,D)

Agra in terms of ambiance is still associated with its Mughal period. The Mughals besides being great rulers were also great builders and they preserved their best architectural wonders for Agra & its neighbourhood. It has many wonderful monuments and the Taj Mahal, the greatest of them all, is a masterpiece of Mughal architecture at its best. The massive but elegant Agra Fort, the magnificent Taj, are each unique and outstanding. Their architectural genius can also be seen in the forts, palaces and aesthetically laid out gardens - each one a silent witness to a grand style of a golden era. Great empires have flourished in Agra and then grown to engulf the whole country. Great battles were fought on this soil, as can be gathered from its checkered history. It's line-up of monuments today stand mute testimony to the splendour of a bygone era and the visionary far-sightedness of the many monarchs who once ruled different parts of this state. As visitors walk down the narrow, bustling streets, they can't help but wonder if the man contentedly smoking a hookah is a direct descendant of some bygone Mughal. Even the majority of the buildings in the modern areas of town such as the cantonment, date back over a hundred years.

After breakfast, visit the Red Fort of Agra - the seat and the stronghold of the Mughal Empire under successive generations. This was the seat of Mughal rule and administration and the present structure owes its origins to Akbar who erected the walls and gates and the first buildings on the eastern banks of Yamuna River. This powerful fortress of red sandstone encompasses, within its 2.5-km-long enclosure walls, the imperial city of the Mughal rulers. It comprises many fairy-tale palaces, such as the Jahangir Palace and the Khas Mahal, built by Shah Jahan; audience halls, such as the Diwan-i-Khas; and two very beautiful mosques.

Lunch will be at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, visit Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity, a home for orphaned children of all age groups as well as the elderly, many of whom are mentally retarded. Witness the nuns' nurturing care for orphaned children and the elderly. The smiling children enjoy visitors; spend time chatting with them as they play and study. Nuns will happily provide you with a short tour of the premises and during your visit you may provide medical assistance to the old people & the children as well as interacting with the Sisters & Brothers who volunteer at the Mission and brief them about first aid treatment that can be helpful to them in an emergency situation.

Mother Teresa, known in the Catholic Church as Saint Teresa of Calcutta, was born in Skopje (now the capital of the Republic of Macedonia). After living in Macedonia for eighteen years she moved to Ireland and then to India, where she lived for most of her life. Mother Teresa received a number of honors, including the 1962 Ramon Magsaysay Peace Prize and 1979 Nobel Peace Prize. Mother Teresa instituted the Missionaries of Charity in India in 1950, and at the time of her death, it was operating 610 missions in 123 countries.

Dinner will be at a local restaurant and then prepare for an early start the next morning as, at sunrise, you will marvel at the splendours of the Taj Mahal.

Overnight at the hotel in Agra.

Day 16 : Nov 9 - Agra – Varanasi (B,L,D)

Before breakfast you will taken on a sunrise tour of the Taj Mahal. Little needs to be said about this architectural wonder which is the main raison-de-etre for every tourist's visit to Agra. Built by Shah Jahan, the Taj is a white marble memorial to his beautiful wife Mumtaz Mahal. This monument took 22 years to be completed and was designed and planned by Persian architect Ustad Isa. Apart from its stunning design balance and perfect symmetry, the Taj is also noted particularly for its elegant domes, intricately carved screens and some of the best inlay work ever seen.

Breakfast at the hotel. Return to Delhi for your afternoon flight to Varanasi.

Dinner and overnight at the hotel in Varanasi.

Day 17 : Nov 10 - Varanasi (B,L,D)

A crumbling maze of a city on the western banks of the Ganges, Varanasi is in many senses the quintessential India. The city name, “Varanasi” (also known as Benares, likely a corruption of the name Varanasi), is derived from the two tributaries of the Ganges River — Varuna and Asi — between which it is situated and the city is centered on the ghats that line the waterfront, each honoring Shiva in the form of a linga -- the rounded phalliclike shaft of stone found on every ghat. Historically, the city has been known to the Hindus as Kasha, which means “brightness”, which gives the city its title as the “city of light”. According to Hindu tradition, Varanasi is the oldest city in the world, the eternal city of Shiva.

Hindus have a cyclical view of life and death (death feeds life, and in turn, life feeds death, around and around again) and in Varanasi in particular, this cycle is strikingly tangible and omnipresent: birth and death dominate the rituals of daily life. Varanasi is seen by devotees as the holiest of Indian pilgrimages, home of Shiva, where the devout come to wash away their sins. It is also one of the holiest tirthas (literally a “crossing” or sacred place where mortals can cross over to the divine, or the gods and goddesses come to bathe on earth), where many return to die in the hope that they may achieve moksha, the salvation of the soul from the cycle of birth, death, and rebirth. The belief is reinforced by the city’s physical layout: Varanasi is entirely positioned on the west side of the Ganges, the side of the setting sun and therefore symbolic of the city’s association with death as the Hindu cremation center; at the same time, the city faces east, the side of the rising sun, symbolic of rebirth and new life.

Here, the sense of ancient history is almost palpable. Getting lost in the impossibly cramped labyrinth, you are crowded by pilgrims purchasing flowers for puja (offering or prayer), grieving relatives bearing corpses, chanting priests sounding gongs, and sacred cows rooting in the rubbish -- an experience you will never forget.

An early start before breakfast as you cruise the waterfront and its famous bathing ghats at dawn and witness the most surreal scenes, where devotees come to bathe, meditate, and perform ancient rituals to greet the sun.

Centuries old tradition to offer puja to the rising Sun is still maintained.

Later walk through the old part of the town visiting the golden temple and mosques before returning to the hotel for breakfast.

Morning city tour of Varanasi, visiting the Bharat Mata Temple with its big relief map of India in marble, Durga Temple, Tulsi Manas Mandir, Banaras Hindu University with its famous Art Gallery and the Mosque of Mughal Emperor Aurangzeb.

Lunch at the hotel followed by free time in the afternoon to explore this fascinating city independently.

Late afternoon visit to the Ghats as sunset approaches to watch the Ganga Aarti ceremony where pundits (priests) at Dasashwamedh Ghat perform aarti (prayer ritual) with complicated fire rituals, and pilgrims light candles to float along the sacred waters. Afterwards, walk through the bazaar area and enjoy a short rickshaw ride. Believers and travelers from around the Globe flock to participate in this ritual every day throughout the year.

Dinner and overnight at hotel.

Day 18 : Nov 11 – Varanasi – Delhi (B,L)

Breakfast at hotel.

Morning excursion to Sarnath, the buried Buddhist city where Lord Buddha gave his first sermon, Sarnath was a renowned school of learning from 6th century B.C. to 12th century A.D. Several Buddhist structures were raised at Sarnath around the same era and today it presents the most expansive ruins amongst places on the Buddhist trail. The Ashoka pillar of Sarnath is the National emblem of India. Visit the ruins, the stupa, the Buddhist temple and the Museum.

Lunch will be at a local restaurant followed by a transfer to the airport for your flight for Delhi and onward return flight to Canada.

Travel insurance information... Coverage available through Manulife Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance to protect you against the unexpected due to, in particular, limited provincial health care coverage afforded to Canadians while traveling overseas and the cancellation provisions inherent in your booking. We offer two insurance coverage options –

Non-medical Inclusive package - There are significant inherent cancellation penalties associated with your booking as detailed in our booking terms and conditions and this insurance package provides coverage for all monies paid for your trip if you should have to cancel due to medical, or other listed, reasons either relating to yourself or a member of your immediate family. It also covers you for trip interruption costs short notice return flight home etc) for medical reasons again, either relating to yourself or an immediate family member as well as flight and travel accident and baggage insurance.

All-Inclusive package – provides coverage for all the components in the non-medical package, plus unlimited health coverage while in the destination

Note, if you believe you may have coverage through your credit card we would strongly advise checking with the credit card company the actual coverage afforded to ensure it covers medical, trip cancellation and trip interruption as not all of these items are covered (or may only offer limited coverage as to trip duration or insured $amount in the event of a claim - sometimes as low as only $1,000 per person) by all kinds of cards.

"Cancel for any reason (CFAR)" coverage - NEW and at no additional cost !!

So long as you purchase either of the two insurance policies above at the same time as your tour booking, you are automatically entitled to this added benefit of CFAR coverage whereby, if you need to cancel your tour booking up to 14 days or more before departure for any reason, your policy will refund you up to a maximum of 50% of the cancellation penalties incurred. This is excellent peace of mind coverage to protect you against (50% of the) cancellation penalties incurred in a situation where the reason for cancellation is not one of the regular covered risks in your policy (ie it is essentially "change of mind" insurance).

Our insurance premiums (dependent upon your age at the time of purchasing insurance and your total tour costs) are below -

Inc. and together, for the purposes of these Terms & Conditions, being referred to collectively as DOT/OT/BIC) accepts reservations. Our liabilities are limited. When you make a payment of deposit and/or final payment, it is also an acknowledgement of receipt and acceptance of these terms and conditions.

RESERVATIONS & DEPOSIT: Early reservations are recommended to guarantee your reservation as several of the accommodation providers with which we make arrangements on your behalf have limited capacity. All services are strictly on a request basis, both for air travel and land requirements and subject to availability of seats and hotel/lodge/camp rooms and cruise cabins. A guaranteed non-refundable deposit of $500 per person ($700 per person for programs which include a cruise component, $1,000 per person for Iceland cruises), together with the applicable travel insurance premium, is required with your reservation request. Tour extensions and, where applicable, seat upgrades in aircraft cabin categories higher than economy, are also subject to additional non-refundable deposits as detailed in each specific program's brochure. Reservations made for travel within 95 days (105 days for programs which include a cruise component) of the travel date will require full payment at the time of reservation. Certain non-standard arrangements may require higher deposit and the same will be advised to you at the time of booking. Please be aware that some airfares (outside of our group air blocks) require full payment at time of booking and will be advised to you accordingly at the time of your booking confirmation.

FINAL AND/OR BALANCE DUE PAYMENT: Guaranteed payment of all balances due is no later than 95 days (105 days for programs which include a cruise component) prior to departure date. If payment of the balance due is not received by the stipulated date, we reserve the right to cancel your reservation without refund of deposit.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS: Visa & MasterCard credit cards are accepted as form of payment. We do accept any other kinds of cards, including either American Express or Diners Club. Your online authorization by way of our Online Registration Form acts as your approval for the credit card provided as part of your registration to be charged for both the initial deposit (and travel insurance premium, where applicable) as well as the future balance payments on the date they become due, together with any other charges due relating to the booking that have been requested by you in writing (including by current or future electronic mail communication). For registrations that are not received via our Online Registration Form, but instead are forwarded to DOT/OT/BIC by mailing, faxing or e-mailing a scanned completed copy of our (non-online) Registration Form, your signature on such (non-online) Registration Form verifies your approval for your credit card to be charged. No services will be provided without receipt of either the authorized Online Registration Form or the duly signed (non-online) Registration Form. Third party payments may have restrictions.

CANCELLATIONS & CHANGES: The deposit amounts (for both the main tour and any optional extensions reserved) are non-refundable and non-transferable. Cancellation penalties for bookings cancelled by the client after the final balance due date (95 days before departure; 105 days before departure for programs which include a cruise component) are as follows: 95 – 61 (105 - 61 days for programs which include a cruise component) days before departure – 25% of total price paid; 60 – 31 days – 50% of total price paid; 30 days or less – 100%. (Notwithstanding the foregoing, any domestic Canada flight purchased as an additional service to the advertised package is 100% non-refundable irrespective of the date of cancellation). If payments are not received by their due dates, we reserve the right to cancel the booking without further notice. Bookings are non-transferable. There will be no refund for unused land arrangements after departure from North America. In the event of the cancellation by DOT/OT/BIC of any or all components of the travel services offered herein, DOT/OT/BIC will have no responsibility beyond the refund of all monies received from the client, which will be deemed to constitute full settlement. Individual airfares purchased outside of our groups air blocks are subject to different rules and cancellation fees. Some airfares may be non-refundable once the booking is confirmed regardless of when it was made. Details will be provided at the time of booking confirmation.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: To protect against cancellation charges, we strongly recommend purchasing Cancellation Protection and Travel Interruption Insurance. In the event of illness, medical and hospital expenses are the traveler's responsibility and no refunds will be made, partial or total, for the purchased tour. We strongly urge that you purchase either the Non-Medical insurance (ie Cancellation Protection and Travel Interruption Insurance) or Deluxe Insurance (Non-Medical coverage plus Health coverage) packages offered by our DOT/OT/BIC through Manulife Insurance.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION, VISA & OTHER IMMIGRATION REQUIREMENTS: A Canadian citizen must be in possession of a passport that must remain valid for a minimum of 6 months from the date of conclusion of their journey for all destinations offered with the exception of New Zealand, Spain/Portugal and countries on our Eastern Europe program where the passport must remain valid for a minimum of 3 months from the date of conclusion of their journey. Tour participants must also ensure that they comply with all visa and health requirements of countries they intend to visit.

For Canadian citizens, a tourist entry visa (or, in some cases, a reciprocity fee) is required for entry into the following destinations offered by DOT/OT/BIC -

- A tourist entry visa is not required for entry into Argentina, Bali (Indonesia), Chile, Ecuador, Iceland, New Zealand, Malaysia, Peru, Singapore, South Africa, Spain and any country on our Eastern Europe program.

Non Canadian citizens may have different requirements. It is the passenger's responsibility to ensure that all his or her passport, visa and mandatory health vaccination requirements for entry into the country are met and the cancellation penalties referred to above will apply if a passenger is not allowed into the destination country (or determines in advance of departure that he will not be allowed into the destination country) due to lack of proper documentation including, but not limited to, passport, visa, customs, health or currency provisions required by the destination country thus preventing him from participate in the tour.

Final tour documents consisting of detailed tour itinerary, vouchers, and airline tickets will be forwarded approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure subject to receipt of final payment.

PRICING POLICY: Accommodations and services at the destination are contracted in local currencies and/or US Dollars. Due to frequent fluctuations in currency exchange (as well as other factors beyond our control including, but not limited to, fuel costs, transportation taxes and airport and local surcharges), prices are subject to change with or without notice and surcharges may apply for which we would endeavor to inform you as soon as possible. However, once we have received your final payment we would either waive any price increase or allow you to cancel your booking without penalty.

UNUSED PORTION OF THE TOUR: No refund will be made for any unused accommodations, missed meals, transportation segments, cruise portions, sightseeing tours or any other service. Such unused items are neither refundable nor exchangeable.

ACCOMMODATIONS: We use a variety of accommodations on our programs with many of our properties specifically chosen to reflect the local style and culture of the region. Our rating system reflects the majority of the accommodations throughout each program but some variety can occur. Ratings are based not only on room quality but also on facilities and location. Accommodation ratings in overseas destinations outside of Canada are an arbitrary measure and their definition from country to country can differ slightly as well as not always being consistent between individual properties in that particular destination nor are they necessarily comparable to an equivalent rating in North America. Rooms are assigned by the respective supplier(s) on a run-of-the-house basis, in category (ies) as specified in the itinerary and the right is reserved to substitute properties/hotels/lodges/camps/cruise/ships as conditions warrant such change for reasons beyond our control. Accommodations on twin occupancy basis, is provided at the properties/hotels/lodges/camps/cruise ships as specified or similar. Single room supplements apply to persons occupying sole use of a room/cabin but travelling with other passengers on the same tour and sharing transport cost on transfers, game drives, coach tours, sightseeing and excursions. Quoted single room rate does not necessarily mean single occupancy of a double room, as several of the establishments offered have especially designed single occupancy units.

SINGLE PASSENGERS TRAVELLING TOGETHER: If you are travelling with a companion and each paying separately the regular each of two double sharing accommodation rate and your companion decides to cancel, the remaining travelling passenger will be responsible for either finding a replacement travelling companion to take the cancelled passenger's place or must pay the single supplement and travel on a single basis.

MEALS & BEVERAGES: Meals as included on our itineraries are either buffet meals and/or table d'hôte. Meals ordered through room service are not included and must be paid directly to the establishment. Alcoholic beverages, soft drinks, and bottled water are included only where indicated on the itinerary. Unless specifically mentioned in your itinerary, all drinks (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic) are to be purchased and paid directly to the establishments.

OPTIONAL TOURS, EXCURSIONS AND TRIP EXTENSIONS: It is our intent to operate any Optional Extensions on a private group basis. However, should the number of participants be of an insufficient level, we reserve the right to either -

- (1) add a surcharge to the previously stated selling price to be able to still offer the extension on a private basis or
- (2) operate any individual tour on a shared basis with other non-group participants or
- (3) cancel the tour and provide a full refund of all monies paid.

No refunds can be provided for cancellation of any tour by the client while in the destination.

SPECIAL REQUESTS: While we will make every effort to accommodate special requests, eg., room/cabin locations, adjoining rooms, non-smoking rooms, bed preferences, special dietary meal requests, these cannot be guaranteed and DOT/OT/BIC cannot be held responsible if such requests cannot be fulfilled. Requests for upgrading rooms/cabins are subject to additional charges. Any deviations to the standard program arrival and departure flight dates should be notified to us by separate e-mail at the time of booking and are subject to availability and also any applicable flight class supplement.

SEATING ASSIGNMENT ON FLIGHTS: Our air arrangements are made via group contracts with the airlines and are therefore subject to more restrictive airline booking conditions and policies than seats purchased individually from airline web sites. If you have a particular seat request, we will do our best to fulfill it subject to the policies of the airlines. Certain airlines assign group seating automatically for which the specific location within the group block is out of our control and to which the airlines do not provide access for us to change specific seat locations; and several airlines do not allow for specific advance seat assignment at all in which case specific seats will be assigned at airport check-in.

DOCUMENT DELIVERY: Your travel documents will be sent to you approximately 3 weeks prior to departure. For bookings received within 3 weeks of departure, express delivery of documents will require a courier delivery fee of $30 to cover extra handling and processing. Additional courier charges will apply for all residents outside of Canada, irrespective of when the booking is made.
