The Destination... MOROCCO

Get to know the vibrant culture and spectacular colorful backdrops that are distinctively Morocco as you immerse yourselves in one of the world's most distinctive cultures. Only a little more than 10 kilometers away from the Spanish coast, Morocco is a bridge between North Africa and Europe that features impressive architecture, beautiful desert vistas and exciting markets.

Morocco is incredibly picturesque, with endless alleys decorated in colorful tiles. Moroccan food is famous for its use of spices that culminate in an interesting mix of Arabic, Berber and Mediterranean influences.

This 13 day tour encompasses different regions of Morocco, touring the country in depth. Begin with the Imperial Cities, and then pass through the dramatic scenery of the High Atlas Mountains and the Sahara Desert, before crossing to the west coast of the kingdom. You will travel through the Saffron region, as well as on the coastal road to Essaouira, known for its art and handmade crafts.

Fly into Casablanca and, after an orientation tour, continue to the political capital, Rabat, for your first night. Your next stop is Moulay Idriss, where Morocco's Arab conquerors first settled. This is followed by Meknes, one of the great imperial cities of Morocco and then on to Fes, a very special city and a haven for Morocco's artists and craftsmen, with perhaps the oldest and most beloved medina in the whole country where donkeys and mules laden with goods still walk the ancient market. The site of the world's first established university, it also has a strong tradition of handcrafts.

Morocco probably isn't where you thought you'd go for a little taste of Switzerland, but that's exactly the comparison invited by the road to Midelt. There are ski towns and European-style chalets here, while Midelt itself serves as more of an agricultural and mining hub. Drive through the scenic Atlas Mountains with its cedar forests on your way to Merzouga for a unique overnight at a desert camp in the Sahara Desert.

Travel the scenic route, the "Road of a Thousand Kasbahs" and the Dades River Valley, marveling at the stunning Todra Gorge and the Tinghir Oasis along the way before stopping in Ouarzazate, the centre of Morocco's booming movie industry where you'll even visit the local studios, where Lawrence of Arabia, Gladiator and episodes of Game of Thrones grace a prestigious list of credits. Climb up the UNESCO World Heritage site of Ait Ben Haddou, the location for many famous movies such as "Jewel of the Nile" and "Gladiator" before continuing on to captivating Marrakech where you can lose yourself in bazaars, surrounded by mosques, snake charmers, fire eaters, and more.

Then head over to Morocco's beautiful Atlantic coastline (stopping to see the unique tree climbing goats along the way...) and wander the whitewashed ramparts in the coastal resort of Essaouira before ending your tour in Casablanca with dinner at Rick's Café made famous by Bogart.

Experience Morocco's deep history, unique atmosphere and welcoming people on an unforgettable journey.

The Itinerary...

DAY 1 – Feb 25, 2024 (Sunday) : Depart Toronto

Depart Toronto for your flight to Casablanca, Morocco.

Specific flight times / routing will be forwarded upon registration.

DAY 2 – Feb 26 : Arrive Casablanca - Rabat (L, D)

Famed as the setting of the classic 1942 film of the same name, Casablanca is Morocco's largest city and its economic powerhouse. Located in western Morocco on the Atlantic Ocean, Casablanca is the country's main port as well as the economic and business centre to be experienced on Morocco vacations.

What started as a small Berber fishing village, Casablanca became a strategic port for the likes of the Phoenicians and the Romans. The Portuguese destroyed and then rebuilt the city, inhabiting it until an earthquake devastated the area in 1755. During the era of French colonialism at the beginning of the 20th century, Casablanca witnessed rapid expansion and the population has grown from approximately 20,000 to more than four million today, and is the largest city in Africa.

The city is known for its unique architecture, a byproduct of being a French protectorate. Mauresque is a blend of traditional Moroccan designs with European styles of the early 20th century. A modern architectural attraction in Casablanca is the Hassan II Mosque designed by French architect Michel Pinseau. With room for 25,000 people inside and a further 80,000 in the courtyard, the mosque is one of the largest in the world. Built by over 6,000 Moroccan craftsmen and artisans using local materials, the mosque was completed in 1993.

Modern Casablanca is a place where the West meets and coexists with Arabic traditions. Modern constructions blend with charming neighborhoods that reflect Arabic-Islamic heritage and the traces of the city's colonial period. A lively metropolis, it is the most liberal of Morocco's cities and its citizens are more exposed, and therefore, open to Western ways than some of their neighbours.

Morning arrival in Casablanca, where you will be met by your local Moroccan tour escort who will be with you for the duration of your tour.

Begin discovering Morocco's largest city and economic capital, with a brief highlight tour including the wide boulevards of PI Mohammed V, the city's handsome Mauresque buildings, which meld French-colonial design and traditional Moroccan style, the downtown area and United Nations Square, the famous Hassan II Mosque (exterior) and the residential beachside suburb of Ain Diab and Anfa.

Welcome lunch at local restaurant.

After lunch, visit of the great Mosque of Hassan II. Situated on the edge of the Atlantic in the easternmost point of Morocco the mosque is truly an architectural masterpiece. Designed by the French architect Michel Pinseau, begun in 1980 and completed in 1993, the mosque is the second largest religious edifice in the world (after Mecca) and has the tallest minaret at 689 feet. It can accommodate 25,000 worshippers inside, and an additional 80,000 in the courtyard perimeter. Built on reclaimed land, almost half the surface lies over the Atlantic. King Hassan II was inspired by a verse of the Koran which states “the throne of God was built upon the water”. Although traditional in design and decoration, the mosque also has some very modern features such as an area of glass floor so that when the worshippers kneel above it, they can view the sea below. Also built to withstand earthquakes, the mosque has heated floors, electric doors, and a retractable roof.

Depart Casablanca for the short drive to Morocco's political capital, Rabat, for overnight.

Located on the Atlantic Ocean at the mouth of the Bou Regreg River is Rabat, Morocco's political capital and third largest city.

The city was formed in 1146 by the Almohad Dynasty, a Moroccan Berber-Muslim dynasty established in 1120. In the 17th century Rabat and its neighbour Salé were united by Barbary pirates forming the Republic of Bou Regreg. The two ports served as bases for attacking ships causing much trouble for the European and Muslim authorities who tried to rein the pirates in. The Republic however did not collapse until 1818. When Morocco became a French protectorate, the capital was moved from Fes to Rabat where it remains.

When on Morocco vacations, the city of Rabat is one of contrasts exhibiting a modern feel but in an historic setting. This was recognized at an international level when Rabat was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2012. It was inscribed under the heading “Modern Capital and Historic City” because Rabat has managed to marry its new town built under the French Protectorate with older parts of the city, some of which date back to the 12th century.

The oldest mosque in the city was built in 1150 while Rabat's most visible landmark, the Hassan Tower (the minaret of an unfinished mosque) dates to 1195. These ancient landmarks coexist alongside the new town, considered by many to be Africa's most ambitious and complete urban project of the 20th century.

It is a modern, environmentally responsible capital that takes pride in its green spaces, punctuated by parks, such as the Botanical Test Gardens and the Bouknadel Exotic Gardens just a few miles from the city as well as boasting a well-developed ocean front with miles of beaches that run along the Atlantic coast all the way to the neighboring Casablanca.

Depart Casablanca for the short drive to Morocco's political capital, Rabat, for overnight.

Dinner and overnight at hotel in Rabat.

DAY 3 – Feb 27 : Rabat - Meknes – Volubilis – Fes (B, L, D)

Breakfast at the hotel.

This morning, take a city tour of the Imperial “Garden City” of Rabat. This well-planned city consists of broad tree-lined avenues, a landscaped central park, and impressive quarters for the foreign embassies and ministries. See the Kasbah of the Oudayas located at the mouth of the Bou Regreg river opposite Salé. The edifice was built in the 12th century during the reign of the Almohad Caliphate (AD 1121-1269). When the Almohads had captured Rabat and destroyed the kasbah of the Almoravid dynasty in the town, they began reconstructing it in AH 544 / AD 1150. They added a palace and a mosque and named it al-Mahdiyya, after their ancestor al-Mahdi Ibn Tumart. After the death of Yaqub al-Mansur (AH 595 / AD 1199), the kasbah was deserted.

Then see the unfinished Hassan Tower and Mosque, and the distinctive and elegant Mausoleum of Mohammed V, revered former King and grandfather of the present King Mohammed VI. These are two of Morocco's most mystical places: one is an incomplete project of majestic proportions and the other stands as a masterpiece of modern Moroccan architecture, holding inside the grand tombs of past kings. Wander through the ruins of columns and enter the ornamental grandeur that is the exquisite mausoleum to discover a part of Moroccan history that will forever remain incomplete.

Depart for the Imperial City of Meknes, known as the “Moroccan Versailles”, which was founded at the end of the 17th Century by Moulay Ismail. The significant Jewish presence is evidenced by Hebraic epitaphs dating from the Christian era as well as Greek inscriptions that still appear in local Synagogues.

Visit the Domaine Zouina Winery where you will tour the vineyard and enjoy lunch accompanied by a wine tasting.

In the afternoon, visit the ancient Roman ruins of Volubilis. During the period between 45-285 AD the city reached its peak of prosperity as the capital of the province of Mauretania Tingitania, but had in actuality been in existence centuries before the first Roman proconsul arrived. Only about half of the 40-hectare UNESCO site at Volubilis has been excavated. The better-known monuments are in the northern part of the site, farthest from the entrance in the south: The Capitol, dedicated to the Triad of Jupiter, Juno and Minerva, dates to 218AD; the Basilica and 1300 sq. meter Forum are nearby. Here, floors of what were once family dwellings are still covered with decorative tile mosaics depicting mythological beings, such as Orpheus charming animals with his lyre and Hercules performing his legendary 12 labors. That so many of these tiles are still in place and exhibiting their colors after centuries of exposure to the elements, is astonishing.

From this tranquil site you can view the Holy City of Moulay Idriss - a national pilgrimage site the town holds the tomb of Moulay Idriss - “el Akhbar” (the Great) - the great grandson of the Prophet Mohammed, and the founder of Islam in Morocco. When he escaped Arabia and came to Volubilis in 787 with his loyal slave Rashid, he was accepted as the 6th Caliph. Unfortunately he was poisoned by his enemies in 792, and in his stead, Rashid ruled as regent until he too was poisoned in 807. Subsequently Moulay Idriss II, assumed rule at the age of 15, and reigned for many years. His tomb as well is in Moulay Idriss. The tombs were rediscovered in the 15th century and became a focus of pilgrimages from the Islamic world.

Continue to Fes.

Dinner and overnight at hotel in Fes.

DAY 4 – Feb 28 : Fes (B, L, D)

The medieval capital of Morocco, Fes, founded in the 8th century, is arguably Morocco's most fascinating city and is located in the northern part of the country, bordered by the foothills of the Atlas Mountains. And situated dramatically in a valley.

As one of Morocco's four imperial cities, it was Morocco's first capital, and is the custodian of 13 centuries of Moroccan history.

Today, it is the kingdom's intellectual, spiritual and cultural center and it radiates a unique aura.

The city was established in 789 by Idris I who was instrumental in the early Islamization of Morocco. The 9th century witnessed emigration from Andalusia and Tunisia as well as Muslims from the Middle East and North Africa. A Jewish population also settled in their own part of the city called Mellah. The 13th and 14th centuries saw Fes become well known throughout Europe as a trading centre and as a place of great artistic merit. Early in the 20th century Morocco became a French protectorate and was granted independence in 1956.

The city of Fes is divided into three distinct parts. Fès el-Bali is Old Fes, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, listed for being a continuously inhabited medieval city and the best preserved "old city" in the Arab world. Within Fès el-Bali is the legendary medina, a maze of winding alleys and covered bazaars, shops, restaurants, mosques and much more. Fès el-Jdid, located south of the medina, is a 13th century "new town", while Ville Nouvelle is the city's modern centre that is very much in the French style.

Fes was a renowned center of medieval learning and at its heart still remains the Karaouine, one of the oldest, still functioning universities in the world. The city's handicrafts are admirable (look for handmade items like rugs, fabrics, ceramics, leather goods, as well as copper, brass, and silver pieces). Fes street life in the medina may be the most memorable you'll ever experience. The souks in the medina are an open-air department store, with the spice shops next to the carpet sellers, across from the fishmonger. This is the hub of Moroccan life, filled with vitality.

Natives of Fes are known as "Fassi", and have a reputation within Morocco as being excellent businessmen. Generally speaking, their origins are divided into 4 distinct categories: descendants of the Moors of Spain, Arab Moslems, Berbers from the High Atlas or the South, and the Islamicized Jews, who came here generations ago to take refuge from persecution in their home countries and subsequently converted to Islam.

Breakfast at the hotel.

A full day of sightseeing as you explore some of the 9,000 narrow lanes, alleys and souks (open air markets) that make-up the labyrinth of the city's ancient medina, Fès el-Bali (Old Fes) including several of its monuments and historical sites.

Visit the Karaouine Mosque and University and, in the neighboring building, the Attarine Medersa (Koranic college), constructed in the early 14th century by the Merinides and a jewel of Hispano-Moorish architecture. Then the Nejjarine Square, with its beautiful fountain an elaborate tile-work mosaics and the Nejjarine Museum, dedicated to the extraordinary woodwork and carpentry of the artisans of Fes entry artifacts. In the 13th Century the Merinide Dynasty built Fez El Jdid (New Fez) with its Royal Palace, mosques, madrasas (Koranic schools), souks and the city wall. Most notably, Fez El Jedid is home to the mellah (Jewish quarter), which provides an interesting insight into Jewish architecture. The wrought iron decorated windows and splendid carved wood balconies of the old mansions are particularly outstanding.

Lunch at a Moroccan Palace-style restaurant within the medina.

In the afternoon visit the various markets of the souks and the tanneries with time for shopping.

The city's tanneries, and their unique dyeing vats, have been around since the 11th century and are among the Fes medina's most iconic sights. The ancient craft of tanning and dyeing, in all its visceral authenticity (cow urine and pigeon poop are still key components in the process), plays out much as it always has. The dyes used in the tannery pits are natural: Blue comes from indigo; red, from poppy or paprika; yellow, from saffron, pomegranate, or even a mix of turmeric and mimosa flowers. The best vantage point for observation is from one of the roof terraces. Leather shops hawking everything from butter-soft leather babouches (iconic Moroccan backless slippers) and poufs, to copies of designer jackets and handbags. Don your best smile, carry a posy of mint to hold beneath your nostrils, and settle in for a long chat with the shopkeepers to learn about this fascinating process. Expect prices in the shops to vary wildly—much depends on your haggling prowess.

Physicians – late afternoon visit to a local hospital in Fes to learn about the Morocco healthcare system and meet with local doctors.

Dinner at hotel.

Overnight at hotel in Fes.

DAY 5 – Feb 29 : Fes – Midelt – Erfoud (B, D)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Depart for Erfoud (en route to the Sahara Desert) via Midelt, the gateway to the Atlas Mountains and an area of Kasbah and Castles.

The drive winds through many charming towns and villages past cedar forests and broad plains before climbing up through the Lower Atlas Mountains. These small towns include Ifrane and Azrou, charming ski towns populated by European-style chalets in an area nicknamed "Morocco's Switzerland".

Midelt serves as the commercial center of a large agricultural hinterland. It is also one of Morocco's principal cities for the mining of several minerals as well as being famous for its Handicraft Art, especially the Berber carpets and "Hanbel".

Pass through a series of fortified villages with outstanding pre-Saharan architecture and the dramatic Ziz Gorge before arriving in Erfoud, in the southern Ziz Valley, one of the last palmed oases on the rim of the Sahara. Erfoud is the gateway to Kasbah trail to the southwest and to the Sahara to the east. A small village at the foot of Djebel, Erfoud, has kept its military origins evoked by its square frame and large avenues with Tamaris at their edges. Almost one million palm trees grow in the Erfoud region alone, so it is not surprising that the date should be its symbol. It has become a popular location for filmmakers due to some of the most beautiful scenery in Morocco with ancient Berber fortress set in palm groves as far as the eye can see.

Dinner and overnight at hotel in Erfoud.

DAY 6 – Mar 1 : Erfoud – Erg Chebbi dunes (Sahara Desert) (B, L, D)

Erg Chebbi is one of Morocco's several ergs – large seas of dunes formed by wind-blown sand and Erg Chebbi is actually the highest and largest sand dune of Morocco with the dunes spread over an area of near 200 km² (28 x 7 km) and up to 250 meters high in places. These dunes are also called the dunes of Merzouga, the name of the little hamlet beneath and were featured in the film Lawrence of Arabia.

This natural sand dunes formation is strikingly strange. Coming from Erfoud, you cross an incredibly desolate and flat area, one of the flattest areas you could imagine. For several kilometres there is nothing but small, black stones spread on the ground and suddenly the long mountain of sand rises ahead in the distance. The dunes are moving and living sculptures and form perfect sand hangings and natural masterpieces and have given rise to many legends and myths among the locals. One legend tells that the dunes of Erg Chebbi were created by God as a punishment to the locals of nearby Merzouga after they refused to give shelter to a woman and her child during a local festival. A sandstorm came, and buried the village.

Watching the sun rise or sun set over the sand dunes of Merzouga will be one of the most spectacular experiences in your life. Colors change with the intensity of the light from pink to apricot with infinite number of shades - an ocean of smooth, color-changing dunes as far as the eye can see.

Breakfast at the hotel.

Today will be particularly memorable as you will end the day sleeping amongst the dunes of Erg Chebbi in the Sahara Desert.

En route to the dunes of Erg Chebbi, possibly the largest dunes in the Sahara-desert, pass through various villages in the surroundings area to witness the Berber culture. Visit the city of Rissani, with its 18th century Ksar and a virtually impenetrable warren of alleys. Continue to the ruins of the 17th century Ksar Abbar fortress which was used as a place of exile for the wives of dead sultans and unwanted family members. Rissani also has one of the best traditional markets in the Sahara - a large market open most days with many different zones: clothes, sweets, dates (very popular as dates are the local fruit of the desert), spices, meat and one of the biggest livestock markets in the area. There will also be a visit to a local Camel Milk Cooperative.

Lunch at a local restaurant in El Khamlia village.

After lunch, switch to a 4WD vehicle to traverse the spectacular dunes of Erg Chebbi to reach your bivouac camp amongst the dunes where you will spend an unforgettable evening under the stars in your luxury tent as if time had stood still.

Early evening, get onto the back of a camel and venture into the desert for a chance to see one of the most beautiful sunsets of your lifetime. Traverse the golden sands of the Sahara until you reach a perfect viewing spot for one of Nature's greatest shows. As another day comes to an end, watch the sky come to life with a fiery glow and the rays playfully change the colors of the endless dunes around you (Note: depending on the weather, there is the possibility that this may be changed to a sunrise camel ride the next morning).

Dinner & overnight at the camp.

DAY 7 – Mar 2 : Merzouga – Erfoud – Tinghir – Ouarzazate (B, D)

Breakfast at the camp as you continue to marvel at the surrounding landscape.

This morning drive, via Erfoud, through scenic dense palm groves to the inspiring Todra Gorges near Tinghir, the highest and the narrowest gorges in Morocco. Situated on the east side of the High Atlas Mountains in Morocco, the Todra Gorge is recognized around the world as one of the most spectacular canyons. Here, both the Todra and Dades Rivers have carved out cliff-sided canyons on their final 25-mile stretch through the mountains, leaving behind this series of reliefs and etches in the rock. The Todra is the name of the last 600 meters of the canyons. In places, this gorge measures just 33 feet across, but the cliffs are more than 500 feet tall on either side. The river has long dried up, leaving only the imagination to picture the powerful natural forces that once carved this region.

In the afternoon, continue along the scenic Route of a Thousand Kasbahs and the Dades River Valley towards Ouarzazate. The Dades Valley is strewn with majestic sand castles and incredible rock formations known as "monkey toes" and this vast valley is dotted with small oases and hundreds of ancient fortifications. The sand-colored walls of the Kasbah may all start to look the same but each holds a special historical treasure within and offer innumerable opportunities for remarkable photos. Stop in the quaint village of Kalaat MGouna, a town in Tinghir Province, Dra-Tafilalt, Morocco. It is most known for its rosewater products and the "Roses Festival" which takes place in the city every year in May. Continue to Ouarzazate, the "Pearl of the Sands," where everything is calm, beautiful and fresh – the image of the authentic south of Morocco where time has stood still for centuries.

Dinner and overnight at hotel in Ouarzazate.

DAY 8 – Mar 3 : Ouarzazate - Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou – Marrakech (B, L)

Strategically located Ouarzazate (war-zazat) has gotten by largely on its wits instead of its looks. For centuries, people from the Atlas, Draa and Dadès Valleys converged to do business at Ouarzazate's sprawling Taourirt Kasbah, and, in the 1920s, it was established as a modern garrison and administrative center by the French to oversee France's colonial interests. However, after the French left in the 1953, the town's close proximity to stunning location backdrops, coupled with movie making incentives by the new Royal Kingdom, resulted in the movie business beginning to flourish in Ouarzazate which today serves as the Hollywood of the Kingdom ("Ouallywood"), center of the country's film industry, and many movie and TV stars stay in the area when filming. Follow in the footsteps of famous filmmakers like David Lean, Ridley Scott, Martin Scorsese and Alejandro González Iñárritu, who chose these sumptuous, movie-ready backdrops for movies supposedly set in Tibet, ancient Rome, Somalia and Egypt, to film masterpieces of the silver screen, including The Mummy, The Living Daylights, Jesus of Nazareth, Gladiator, Kundun, Babel and many other biblical motion pictures. And these magical places attract new productions each year, as evidenced by the recent arrival of the series "Prison Break".

Breakfast at the hotel.

Start the day with a short tour of Ouarzazate, a town that was originally built as a garrison and administrative center by the French, but today serves as the Hollywood of the Kingdom, the center of the country's film industry, and many movie and TV stars stay in the area when filming (The Mummy, Lawrence of Arabia, Jesus of Nazareth, Babel, Gladiator and many other biblical motion pictures were filmed in this region).

Take a tour of the Atlas Studios. Named for its proximity to the Atlas Mountains, Atlas Film Studios is the largest film studio in the world. Covering more than 322,000 square feet of desert, Atlas wasn't built until 1983 when Moroccan entrepreneur Mohamed Belghmi recognized the need for a permanent studio in the area after witnessing many films having been made in the area "on location" since the early 1960s. Today, Atlas is one of several film studios in the area.

Then drive to the impressive Ksar (Arabic for "fortified city") and spectacular fortress of Ait Ben Haddou, the iconic landscape immortalized in such films as Lawrence of Arabia, Gladiator, and Alexander the Great. This is a massive fortification made up of six sand coloured Kasbahs all protected by UNESCO. You can spend time in its maze of winding streets until reaching a fortified granary at the top which provides an amazing view of the valley. As one of the largest Kasbahs in Morocco this is sure to impress and give you a feeling of how tribes lived and protected themselves in former times

Lunch at a local restaurant close to Ait Ben Haddou.

In the afternoon, head West, crossing the High Atlas Mountains via the magnificent Tizin Tichka Pass to Marrakech.

Evening at leisure. Overnight at hotel in Marrakech.

DAY 9 – Mar 4 : Marrakech (B, D)

One of Morocco's four imperial cities, Marrakech is located at the foothills of the Atlas Mountains - a mixture of traditional and contemporary, this is a fashionable city with many ties to the past.

Berber Almoravids founded the city in 1062 and in time, it became the capital of the Islamic Empire. This empire stretched from central Spain to West Africa and within it, Marrakech became a centre of religion, culture and trading. Up until 1867 Europeans were not permitted to enter the city without direct permission from the Sultan, however, this changed early in the 20th century when France made the whole of Morocco a protectorate. After the Second World War Marrakech became a popular tourist destination for those seeking an exotic experience.

Today Marrakech incorporates both modern neighbourhoods and an old fortified city, the Medina. The Medina is a UNESCO World Heritage Site because it is an impressive example of a major Islamic capital of the Western Mediterranean as well as being a "living historic town". Admire the architectural wealth of the Medina by visiting one of its many riads, small oriental palaces arranged around a central courtyard, or relax at the Menara, a large pooled garden typical of the city. Jemaa el-Fna Square is the beating heart of the city - a marketplace and one of the most famous squares in all of Africa. Once a place of public executions, today it is a meeting place for different cultures as well as entertainment day and night with the snake-charmers, storytellers, fortune-tellers, potion vendors, Gnaoua musicians, henna artists, monkey performers and acrobats. Outside of the walled Medina, become immersed in contemporary Morocco. The Guéliz and Hivernage districts offer the most up to date infrastructure, luxury boutiques and international brands along broad spacious avenues; all in Marrakech's own inimitable style.

Breakfast at the hotel. Today, enjoy a full-day sightseeing tour of Marrakech as you unearth the secrets of Marrakech. Marrakech's prestige is very much due to past glories and, being for many successive dynasties, the prosperous Capital of Morocco, Marrakech boasts many masterpieces of architecture, such as the slender minarets like the Koutoubia, which dominates the ancient Medina. Visit the tombs of the Saadi rulers with its outstanding examples of Moorish art and the Bahia Palace, an exemplary of privileged life in the 19th century with its brilliant mosaics, carved woodwork and gorgeous marble.

Discover the culture of the Saharan region on a visit to Tiskiwin Museum, a small private museum that displays a variety of relics and art pieces from a number of North and West African countries. The charming museum, situated in a turn-of-the-century Moroccan-style mansion, houses the collection of Dutch anthropologist Bert Flint with each room organized into geographically themed exhibits focusing on artifacts from different towns and regions along the ancient trade route from Marrakech to Timbuktu. The works on display include exquisite hand-woven carpets and textiles from different cultures, including Berber and Tuareg, as well as traditional clothing and jewelry, intricate basketwork and tribal handicrafts.

Start off the afternoon with a visit to the Rosa Huile Herbal Pharmacy in the Old Medina to learn about their products and their myriad of medicinal uses. This traditional pharmacy uses various oils (including the local Argan oil as well as orange blossom and rose oils), cumin, saffron, ginseng, nigella seeds to name just a few.

Continue to the rampart of Marrakech: The ramparts dominate this medieval city with their characteristic red stone walls and superb nine gates dating back to different eras with rich history that is both surprising and unseen - 19kms long and flanked by 202 towers. Also pass through the Agdal Gardens, located in the southern part of Marrakech, facing the snowy peaks of the Atlas Mountains.

Finally, visit the famous main square of Djemaa el-Fna with its orange juice and spices stalls and vendors, along with fire-eaters, mime artists, snake-charmers and street musicians performing at every turn. You may also take the opportunity to explore the city's fabled, labyrinthine souks, their bustling alleyways brimming with all manner of wares.

DAY 10 – Mar 5 : Marrakech – Essaouira (B, L)

With notched walls, the whisper of trade winds, and its whitewashed medina with homes with white and blue facades – the colors of ocean foam and waves and more reminiscent of Greece than Morocco – Essaouira has earned the nickname "Bride of the Atlantic". This medieval coastal town lies on the crossroads between two tribes: the Arab Chiadma to the north and the Haha Berbers in the south. Add to that the Gnawa, who came originally from further south in Africa, and the Europeans, and you get a rich cultural mix which has been even further enhanced by its internationally renowned annual festival of Gangue music.

It is the coastal wind – the beautifully named alizee, or taros in Berber – that has allowed Essaouira (essa-weera, or es-sweera in Arabic), once known as Mogador, to retain its traditional culture and character. Also known as the 'Wind City of Africa', it attracts plenty of windsurfers between April and November, but the majority of visitors come here in spring and autumn to wander through the spice-scented lanes and palm-lined avenues of the fortified medina, browse the many art galleries and boutiques, relax in some of the country's best hotels and riads and watch fishing nets being mended and traditional boats being constructed in the hugely atmospheric port.

The good life and water-oriented pastimes go hand in hand here. Take a quiet walk in the shade of its ramparts, which also stand in for the walls of Astapor, the red city on the television series "Game of Thrones". Climb to the top of them and retrace a watchman's rounds: from here you can see the Iles Purpuraires and the hawks and seagulls that soar over the nature preserve. Continue on to the fishing port and its animated sailors. Not far from there, the fish market entices with the night's haul of fish and seafood. The interlaced alleys of the medina await you in the town center - this UNESCO-listed medina is one of the finest in Morocco.

Breakfast at the hotel.

This morning, physicians will visit the Marrakech Fertility Institute, the first fertility clinic in Morocco, to meet with local physicians and learn about their important work.

<https://www.marrakechfertilityinstitute.com/>

Non-physicians will visit the legendary Majorelle Gardens. This enchanting place, filled with bougainvillea, coconut, banana, bamboo and palms, was created in the 1920s by the French painter Jacques Majorelle. At the heart of lush vegetation, he built a large workshop, pergolas and arbors completely covered with a bright blue distracting. Neglected after the painter's death in 1962, the property was restored a few years ago by fashion designer Yves Saint-Laurent and used as his residence.

Later in the morning, depart Marrakech for Essaouira with a couple of unique stops along the way.

First, stop to see the unique cloven-hoofed tree climbing goats - a bewildering sight. They only climb one particular type of tree: the Argania spinosa, typically referred to as the argan tree – a prickly and thorny tree, it produces small yellowish flowers, which then produce a fairly small fruit.

Afterwards, visit the Argan Oil Factory Marjana Cooperative. The Argan Tree is endemic to Southwest Morocco and its oil has not only cosmetic but also many medicinal uses resulting in a huge demand from all over the world. The formula of the argan cream revolves around its well-known highly nourishing ingredient, argan oil is rich in vitamin E, essential fatty acids, and has moisturizing, anti-aging and antioxidant properties with its most popular uses being for the treatment of acne, face wrinkles, small burns, arthritis, inflammation and muscle issues. In addition, Argan Honey is known to be beneficial for heart and digestion issues and Argan Oil is also used also as culinary product for many famous Moroccan dishes such as couscous, salads and amlou spread (argan oil, almond paste and honey).

Arrive in Essaouira and enjoy a fish lunch at a sea food restaurant in the medina.

In the afternoon, take a tour of the medina including the ramparts, the Skala, the marquetry craftsmen carving “thuja” wood inlaid with ivory; the fishermen's port, silver jewelers, the Mellah Jewish quarter, art galleries and Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdullah museum.

Evening at leisure.

Overnight at hotel in Essaouira.

DAY 11 – Mar 6 : Essaouira (B)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Physicians - Morning medical meeting at hotel in Essaouira (see detailed Medical Program in your tour documentation package for list of speakers). Any physician who would like to make a short presentation at the Academic Conference should register their interest by completing the relevant section of the program registration form and the Group Medical Director, Dr. Rachel Kassner (tel: 1-902 393-9949, e: jrpalter@gmail.com) will contact you directly.

Rest of the day is free to continue to explore this captivating coastal treasure independently – stroll around the medina and it's souks and maybe find some souvenirs in one of the many art galleries or boutiques, sip some Moroccan tea (surprisingly cooling even on the warmest of days) or just spend some time relaxing at the pool or on the golden beach.

Evening at leisure. Overnight at hotel in Essaouira.

DAY 12 – Mar 7 : Essaouira – Safi – Mazagan – Casablanca (B, D)

Breakfast at the hotel.

Head North from Essaouira this morning towards the final overnight of the tour in Casablanca.

Make a stop in the provincial capital of Safi with its fortress on the edge of the Atlantic dating back to the 15th century. Less picturesque than neighbouring coastal towns, Safi has a thriving port and industrial center and offers an insight into the day-to-day life of a provincial Moroccan city. It is also an internationally known surfing location.

Safi is one of Morocco's top cities for ceramics producing the typical brightly coloured Safi pottery and its streets are the point of origin for much of the pottery that can be found all over the country. Here the artisans work enthusiastically over their wheels to craft wondrous pieces in terra cotta and clay and you will visit one of the many pottery companies to view the process first hand.

Continue to Oualidia, a coastal village in Morocco situated between El Jadida and Safi. It is located beside a protected natural lagoon and has been called Morocco's "oyster capital," a reference to the significant role shellfish harvesting plays in the local economy.

Check-in to the hotel in Casablanca.

To end your tour, enjoy a farewell dinner at Rick's Café. Opened in 2004, the restaurant was designed to recreate the bar made famous by Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman in the movie classic Casablanca. Set in an old courtyard-style mansion built against the walls of the Old Medina of Casablanca, the restaurant – piano bar is filled with architectural and decorative details reminiscent of the film: curved arches, a sculpted bar, balconies, balustrades as well as beaded and stenciled brass lighting and plants that cast luminous shadows on white walls.

Travel insurance information... Coverage available through Manulife Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance to protect you against the unexpected due to, in particular, limited provincial health care coverage afforded to Canadians while traveling overseas and the cancellation provisions inherent in your booking. We offer the following insurance coverage options through Manulife Insurance, one of Canada's leading insurance providers –

NON-MEDICAL INCLUSIVE PLAN

There are significant inherent cancellation penalties associated with your booking as detailed in our booking terms and conditions and this insurance package provides coverage for cancellation penalties if you should have to cancel due to medical, or other listed, reasons either relating to yourself or a member of your immediate family. It also covers you for trip interruption costs short notice return flight home etc) for medical reasons again, either relating to yourself or an immediate family member as well as flight and travel accident and baggage insurance.

ALL INCLUSIVE PLAN

This plan provides coverage for all the components in the Non-medical Inclusive plan, plus health coverage while in the destination

"Cancel for any reason (CFAR)" coverage - NEW and at no additional cost !!

So long as you purchase either of the two insurance policies above at the same time as your tour booking, you are automatically entitled to this added benefit of CFAR coverage whereby, if you need to cancel your tour booking up to 14 days or more before departure for any reason, your policy will refund you up to a maximum of 50% of the cancellation penalties incurred. This is excellent peace of mind coverage to protect you against (50% of the) cancellation penalties incurred in a situation where the reason for cancellation is not one of the regular covered risks in your policy (ie it is essentially "change of mind" insurance).

PREMIUM PROTECTION PLAN ("PPP")

As a third option, Manulife is now also offering a new enhanced travel insurance policy, their Premium Protection Plan ("PPP"). This is Manulife's most comprehensive coverage, providing all the same types of coverage as the All-Inclusive plan (above) but with higher covered amounts in most areas. It is also a simplified policy in so much that, whereas the All-Inclusive plan and Non-medical Inclusive plan (above, and as is the case with most insurance company travel policies) have a list of specific covered events, the PPP offers cancellation coverage for any unexpected and unforeseen event (ie., any event, situation or circumstance that is beyond your control that prevents you from travelling) with only a few exclusions that apply.

An overview of the PPP may be found by clicking here

A comparison of the enhanced benefits provided by the PPP compared to Manulife's regular All Inclusive plan may be found by clicking here

A major benefit of the PPP is that coverage for reimbursement of inherent cancellation penalties under the Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR)" coverage is increased to 80% of the cancellation penalties incurred for all cancellation up to 7 days or more before departure.

Please note, the PPP is only available to clients under the age of 75 (at the date of purchase of the insurance coverage) and must be purchased at the same time as the travel tour booking is made (72 hour grace period).

A detailed overview of coverage benefits and limitations of each insurance policy that we offer through Manulife may be found at -

For residents of Ontario, simply accept your choice of insurance (Non-medical Inclusive, All-Inclusive or Premium Protection coverage) on our online registration form and we will apply the premium above on your invoice confirmation (if using our pdf registration form, enter the applicable premium from the above table when completing the registration form)

For residents of Canadian provinces other than Ontario, insurance regulations state that travel insurance should be taken out directly with Manulife Insurance, albeit through a direct web link hosted on our web site, ie you should purchase your travel insurance policy by simply following the link below to take advantage of our preferred rates with Manulife) via our company's exclusive Manulife link:

<https://www.igoinsured.com/Direct/ManulifeGlobal.aspx?ag=ONTOTPR&lang=E>

Non-Canadian residents

For residents of countries outside of Canada (including the USA), insurance regulations allow us to sell "Trip Cancellation" insurance (this policy includes both trip cancellation and trip interruption coverage but not medical coverage). Hence it is not possible for non-Canadian residents to purchase either the All Inclusive or Premium Protection plans from Manulife. We do find that many of our overseas clients already have medical insurance through other channels and therefore, if this is the case, you may purchase "Trip Cancellation" coverage by following the link below to purchase the "Trip Cancellation" insurance policy (taking advantage of our preferred rates with Manulife) via our company's exclusive Manulife link:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Travel insurance that may be available through your credit card

When considering any of the travel insurance policies above, if you believe you may have coverage through your credit card we would strongly advise checking with the credit card company the actual coverage afforded to ensure it covers medical, trip cancellation and trip interruption as not all of these items are covered (or may only offer limited coverage as to trip duration or insured $amount in the event of a claim - sometimes as low as only $1,000 per person) by all kinds of cards. Also, most coverage through credit card benefits does not include Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR) coverage.

When you make a payment of deposit and/or final payment, it is also an acknowledgement of receipt and acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.

1. RESERVATIONS & DEPOSIT: Early reservations are recommended to guarantee your reservation as several of the accommodation providers with which we make arrangements on your behalf have limited capacity. All services are strictly on a request basis, both for air travel and land requirements and subject to availability of seats and hotel/lodge/camp rooms and cruise cabins. A guaranteed non-refundable deposit of $500 per person (with the exception of $800 per person for Morocco and $1,000 for Japan programs; $700 per person for programs which include a cruise component, $1,000 per person for Iceland cruises), together with the applicable travel insurance premium, is required with your reservation request. Tour extensions and, where applicable, seat upgrades in aircraft cabin categories higher than economy, are also subject to additional non-refundable deposits as detailed in each specific program's brochure. Reservations made for travel within 95 days (105 days for programs which include a cruise component) of the travel date will require full payment at the time of reservation. Certain non-standard arrangements may require higher deposit and the same will be advised to you at the time of booking. Please be aware that some airfares (outside of our group air blocks) require full payment at time of booking and will be advised to you accordingly at the time of your booking confirmation.

2. FINAL AND/OR BALANCE DUE PAYMENT: Guaranteed payment of all balances due is no later than 95 days (105 days for programs which include a cruise component, 125 days for Morocco programs) prior to departure date. If payment of the balance due is not received by the stipulated date, we reserve the right to cancel your reservation without refund of deposit.

3. CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS: Visa & MasterCard credit cards are accepted as form of payment. We do accept any other kinds of cards, including either American Express or Diners Club. Your online authorization by way of our Online Registration Form acts as your approval for the credit card provided as part of your registration to be charged for both the initial deposit (and travel insurance premium, where applicable) as well as the future balance payments on the date they become due, together with any other charges due relating to the booking that have been requested by you in writing (including by current or future electronic mail communication). For registrations that are not received via our Online Registration Form, but instead are forwarded to DOT/OT/BIC by mailing, faxing or e-mailing a scanned completed copy of our (non-online) Registration Form, your signature on such (non-online) Registration Form verifies your approval for your credit card to be charged. No services will be provided without receipt of either the authorized Online Registration Form or the duly signed (non-online) Registration Form. Third party payments may have restrictions.

4. CANCELLATIONS & CHANGES: The deposit amounts (for both the main tour and any optional extensions reserved), as well as any travel insurance premiums paid, are 100% non-refundable and non-transferable. Cancellation penalties for bookings cancelled by the client after the final balance due date (95 days before departure; 105 days before departure for programs which include a cruise component) are as follows: 95 – 61 (105 - 61 days for programs which include a cruise component) days before departure – 25% of total price paid; 60 – 31 days – 50% of total price paid; 30 days or less – 100%. (Notwithstanding the foregoing, any domestic Canada flight purchased as an additional service to the advertised package is 100% non-refundable irrespective of the date of cancellation). If payments are not received by their due dates, we reserve the right to cancel the booking without further notice. Bookings are non-transferable. There will be no refund for unused land arrangements after departure from North America. In the event of the cancellation by DOT/OT/BIC of any or all components of the travel services offered herein, DOT/OT/BIC will offer either a refund, or future travel credit, depending on the situation with our supplier partners subject to any specific penalties relating to airline seats that would be out of our control and would obviously be dependent upon the air ticket conditions. Irrespective of whether a tour booking is cancelled by the client or if any or all components of the travel services are cancelled by DOT/OT/BIC, airfares may be subject to different rules and cancellation fees including some airfares may be fully non-refundable once the booking is confirmed regardless of when it was made including upgraded air cabin classes (ie premium economy, business and first class cabins) which are subject to different rules and cancellation fees based on the individual fare class in which the seats are purchased.

5. TRAVEL INSURANCE: To protect against cancellation charges, we strongly recommend purchasing Cancellation Protection and Travel Interruption Insurance. We strongly urge that you purchase either the Non-Medical Inclusive insurance (ie Cancellation Protection and Travel Interruption Insurance), All Inclusive insurance (Non-Medical coverage plus health coverage), or the Premium Protection Plan insurance package (All Inclusive coverage with higher coverage limits) offered by DOT/OT/BIC through Manulife Insurance. COVID-19 is currently viewed as a pre-existing situation by all insurance companies, including Manulife Insurance, and therefore is an exclusion under those policies that include health insurance, ie All Inclusive and Premium Protection Plan insurance packages. For coverage relating to COVID-19 health claims while on your tour, Manulife offers separate coverage, ie COVID-19 Pandemic Travel Insurance. Our rating system reflects the majority of the accommodations throughout each program but some variety can occur. Ratings are based not only on room quality but also on facilities and location. Accommodation ratings in overseas destinations outside of Canada are an arbitrary measure and their definition from country to country can differ slightly as well as not always being consistent between individual properties in that particular destination nor are they necessarily comparable to an equivalent rating in North America. Rooms are assigned by the respective supplier(s) on a run-of-the-house basis, in category (ies) as specified in the itinerary and the right is reserved to substitute properties/hotels/lodges/camps/cruise/ships as conditions warrant such change for reasons beyond our control. Single room supplements apply to persons occupying sole use of a room/cabin but travelling with other passengers on the same tour and sharing transport cost on transfers, game drives, coach tours, sightseeing and excursions. 10. SINGLE PASSENGERS TRAVELLING TOGETHER: If you are travelling with a companion and each paying separately the regular each of two double sharing accommodation rate and your companion decides to cancel, the remaining travelling passenger will be responsible for either finding a replacement travelling companion to take the cancelled passenger's place or must pay the single supplement and travel on a single basis.

11. AGE & HEALTH REQUIREMENTS:

Minimum Age: The minimum age for the majority of our tours is 12 at the time of travel.

Maximum Age: We have no upper age limit for our tours though we inform you that our tours may include some components for which group members need to be in good physical condition in order to be able to participate. We will provide details on mandatory and recommended health requirements but it is your responsibility to ensure that you obtain proper and detailed medical advice at least 6 weeks prior to travel for the latest health requirements and recommendations for your destination and how they impact your own personal health situation.

12. MEALS & BEVERAGES: Meals as included on our itineraries are either buffet meals and/or table d'hôte. Meals ordered through room service are not included and must be paid directly to the establishment. Alcoholic beverages, soft drinks, and bottled water are included only where indicated on the itinerary. Unless specifically mentioned in your itinerary, all drinks (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic) are to be purchased and paid directly to the establishments.

13. OPTIONAL TOURS & EXCURSIONS AND TOUR EXTENSIONS: It is our intent to operate any optional tours & excursions and tour extensions on a private group basis. However, should the number of participants be of an insufficient level, we reserve the right to either -

- (1) add a surcharge to the previously stated selling price to be able to still offer the extension on a private basis or
- (2) operate any individual tour on a shared basis with other non-group participants or
- (3) cancel the tour and provide a full refund of all monies paid.

No refunds can be provided for cancellation of any tour by the client while in the destination.

14. SPECIAL REQUESTS: While we will make every effort to accommodate special requests, eg., room/cabin locations, adjoining rooms, non-smoking rooms, bed preferences, special dietary meal requests, these cannot be guaranteed and DOT/OT/BIC cannot be held responsible if such requests cannot be fulfilled. Requests for upgrading rooms/cabins are subject to additional charges. Any deviations to the standard program arrival and departure flight dates should be notified to us by separate e-mail at the time of booking and are subject to availability and also any applicable flight class supplement.

15. SEATING ASSIGNMENT ON FLIGHTS: Our air arrangements are made via group contracts with the airlines and are therefore subject to more restrictive airline Terms & Conditions and policies than for seats purchased individually from airline web sites. If you have a particular seat request, we will do our best to fulfill it subject to the policies of the airlines. Certain airlines assign group seating automatically for which the specific location within the group block is out of our control and to which the airlines do not provide access for us to change specific seat locations; and several airlines do not allow for specific advance seat assignment at all in which case specific seats will be assigned at airport check-in.

16. DOCUMENT DELIVERY: Your travel documents will be sent to you approximately 3 weeks prior to departure. For bookings received within 3 weeks of departure, express delivery of documents will require a courier delivery fee of $30 to cover extra handling and processing. Additional courier charges will apply for all residents outside of Canada, irrespective of when the booking is made.
