The Destination... Spain

Stretching sun-drenched and untamed to the south of the wild and majestic Pyrenees, this passionate nation works a mysterious magic. Spain is littered with hundreds of glittering beaches; flamenco bailaors (dancers) swirl in flounces of colour; and toreros (bullfighters) strut their stuff in the bullrings. Holidaymakers gather around great pans of steaming paella pitchers of sangria.

Beyond these clichéd images, a vast, unexpected panorama unfolds before you. Emerald green mountains seem to slide into the wild blue Atlantic in the north. Proud, solitary castles and medieval towns are strewn across the interior. White villages glitter in inland Andalucía. Rugged mountain ranges such as the Sierra Nevada are draped across the country. And, the Celtic music of Cantabria, Asturias & Galicia reminds one of the misty lands of Brittany, Scotland and Ireland.

From its Roman relics to Muslim palaces, baroque cathedrals to Modernista constructions, Spain is a treasure chest of artistic and architectural marvels across a matchless cultural palette. More than 30 years of democracy and rapid economic development have spurred Spain's cities to bedeck themselves with sparkling new ornaments. An army of local and international architects have left a slew of daring signature buildings in Barcelona, Bilbao and Madrid, to name a few. Up and down the country, a zest for life creates an intense, hedonistic vibe in its effervescent cities. Indeed, if there is one thing Spaniards love, it is to eat, drink and be merry, whether gobbling up tapas over fine wine in Madrid and the south, or its elaborate Basque Country equivalent, pintxos, over cider in the north.

This 12 day itinerary shows you the highlights of Central and Southern Spain as you visit many of its most famous centers – Barcelona, the cosmopolitan capital of Catalonia; Zaragoza, with its history of co-habited Muslim, Roman & Jewish cultures; the capital, Madrid including its world famous Prado museum; the former Spanish capital, and now UNESCO town, of Toledo. Then head into Andalusia in southern Spain, the most history-rich and evocative of Spain's provinces - Granada, with its breathtaking Alhambra palace and Arab-flavoured street life; the old city of Cordoba, seeing its Jewish Quarter and Grand Mosque and finally Seville, the old Moorish capital and current capital of Andalusia with its colossal Gothic cathedral and resplendent Mudéjar palaces.

And combine all this with visits to exclusive local bodegas courtesy of Fernando Garcia, Executive Chef and Owner of LaVinia Restaurant, Toronto as you sample one of the country's finest assets, its superior wine collections, as well as experiencing the different gastronomical flavors of the region, including hands-on cooking classes. Spanish cuisine is famous the world over because it is flavoursome, healthy, traditional, creative and varied, and also because of its popular restaurants and fine dining, as demonstrated by the international recognition of its chefs. Key ingredients include olive oil, Iberian ham –a source of national pride– and Spanish wine. Rioja produces the most famous Spanish wine, but you will discover other options throughout your journey through Spain.

A rich tapestry of experiences that will leave you hungry, and thirsty, for more....

Overnight in Barcelona.

DAY 4 – Sep 26 : Barcelona - Zaragoza (B, L)

Zaragoza is a liberal and welcoming city, the result of the influence of the four cultures that have marked its character. Founded by the low Iberian under the name of Salduie in the confluence of the rivers Ebro, Huerva and Gállego, it would later be Roman (Cesaraugusta), the Royal Arabic capital (Sarakosta) and Christian capital of the Kingdom of Aragón, which, in its maximum splendour, comprised the territories of the current Aragón, Catalonia, Valencia, the Balearic islands, the island of Sicily, the dukedom of Naples and the Greek dukedoms of Athens and Neopatria, and which would be key in the foundation of the current concept of Spain. The so-called "casco viejo" (historic city centre), contains most of the history of Zaragoza.*

The buildings, palaces and churches reflect the different styles and the exchange among cultures. In the Square of El Pilar, you will find the Gothic cathedral of La Seo and the Basilica of El Pilar, one of the main places of worship to Virgin Mary of the Christianity, with frescoes by Francisco de Goya. The Arab palace of the Aljafería, current headquarters of the Aragonese Parliament, is one of the best exponents of Muslim art outside of Andalusia.

Breakfast at hotel.

Professional program – early morning visit to the Barraquer Ophthalmology Center. Founded in 1941, Barraquer is one of the leading ophthalmology centres in the world in the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of eye conditions. It offers comprehensive eyecare to patients from all around the world thanks to a medical team of 30 highly specialized ophthalmologists of recognized professional prestige. After almost 80 years of success and attracting patients from all over the world, the Centre continues undertaking its original mission and has strengthened its trajectory, distinguished by its revolutionary techniques and treatments which have led it become recognized as a pioneering body in its area of specialization. www.co-barraquer.es

Partners will have free time before the group departs mid morning for Zaragoza.

En route, stop at Carinera to visit a local winery, Solar de Urbezo, for a tour of the facility and sampling of a collection of their varietals.

The winery was founded in 1995 by Santiago Gracia Ysiegas. His vocation was to elaborate grapes from the vineyards of the Gracia-Campillo family, striving for a total guarantee of purity and quality in their wines. The winery is located in Carinena, in the region of Aragon, 45 km from Zaragoza and cultivates Grenache, Carignen, Tempranillo, Merlot, Cabernet-Sauvignon, Syrah and Chardonnay grapes that ensure, together with the climate and soil, complex and well-balanced wines of a distinct character. The culture of wine growing in Carinena is one of the most ancient in Spain; it goes back to the 3rd century, when the Romans inhabited this land. The cultivation of grapes was maintained throughout time and still constitutes an essential part in the way of life, economy and historical heritage of the area. www.solardeurbezo.es

Lunch will be at La Rebotica, a reference point for typical Aragonese cuisine in this small town.

The Region of Aragon has inherited its rich gastronomy from the different cultures which have passed through the region over the centuries. It knows how to exploit its local products and today its cuisine is described as classical. The great geographical diversity of this region has given rise to top quality products which are as varied as the land's topography.

In this rural and mountainous region, lambs are raised on the slopes of the Pyrenees, making lamb and pork dishes famous. Roast lamb dishes like Asado de Ternasco, (lamb which is cooked with garlic, salt and bacon fat) along with pork dishes are very popular. Among them: Magras con tomate, roasted pork leg and Almojábanas de Cerdo. Cured ham from Teruel and Huesca are used often. In fact, Teruel ham is one of the most representative products of Aragon's gastronomy. It was the first ham in Spain to get PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) in 1983. PDO identifies a product that originates in a particular geographic region, and whose characteristics (flavour, colour and texture) and quality are due to factors specific to that region. The Teruel ham is cured for a minimum of 14 months, and must have a bright red color and a smooth, juicy flavor and its logo must be around the hoof to discern whether it is original or not.

Among the cheeses, Tronchon is notable. This type of cheese takes its name from the town of Tronchón (Teruel, Aragon). The paste is whitish in color and has a smooth rind which is usually engraved with floral or symbolic motifs or letters. Another favourite cheese hailing from Huesca in Aragon is Benasque. This hard cheese is made from cow's milk and it's aged from 3 to 6 months in cellars. Underneath its washed rind, the texture is compact and buttery, yet crumbly, melting in the mouth.

The Aragonese region also produces a great variety of fruit, vegetables and pulses, including the thistle and borage which, due to their increasing popularity, are often seen on the menus of top restaurants, haricot beans, onions from Fuentes, asparagus from the banks of the River Ebro and the oils from Lower Aragon, whose excellent quality is due to the olive used in their preparation. The fruit grown in Aragon is admired throughout the rest of mainland Spain: pears, apples, cherries, plums, peaches.

In the afternoon, continue to Zaragoza for a tour of this historic city where you will see The University of Zaragoza, Imperial Aragon Canal, the River Ebro, and the Misericordia Bullring before visiting the Basilic of Our Lady of El Pilar - the emblematic symbol of the city, dedicated to the Virgin of El Pilar, Spain's patron virgin, where in the walls you will see several frescoes painted by Goya. And finally, La Seo (the old cathedral).

Evening at leisure to explore the busy nightlife of Zaragoza.

Overnight in Zaragoza.

DAY 5 – Sep 27 : Zaragoza - Madrid (B, D)

Europe's third largest city, and Spain's capital, Madrid stands at the very centre of Spain – geographically, culturally and politically. Madrid not only offers the culture and good times of a sophisticated, modern city but it also retains the charm and elegance of its early years. The power and glory of Madrid is reflected in its parks, plazas, boulevards and in the pride and panache of today's Madrilenos. For all its international veneer, however, the city remains thoroughly Spanish, and Old Madrid has been designed on a human scale rather than a monumental scale. Among the splendid attractions of Madrid are the Prado Museum; home to masterworks of Goya, Velazquez and El Greco; the 19th century Villahermosa Palace now the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum; the Reina Sofia Art Centre showcasing more than 300 modern works by Dali, Miro & Picasso among others; the 18th century Royal Palace on the lovely Plaza de Oriente; the bustling Puerta del Sol with its many shops, restaurants and tapas bars and Retiro Park for strolling while admiring local artists and buskers.

Breakfast at hotel.

In the morning depart for Madrid with a stop en route in charming town of Medinaceli declared a Historic-Artistic Ensemble, in the province of Soria.

Free time for independent lunch and visit.

Medinaceli's historic quarter has the Property of Cultural Interest designation and there are traces of the Romans, Arabs and Christians in the village and its surroundings. Among its many attractions, the Roman arch from the 2nd and 3rd centuries, the only one with three arcades that is preserved in Spain; the 16th century Gothic era collegiate church and the Convent of Santa Isabel, funded in 1528 by Clarist nuns. Highlights among the civil buildings include the magnificent palace of the Dukes of Medinaceli, from the 17th century with its interior houses of Roman mosaics; and to the north, the remains of an old Arab castle.

Mid afternoon, continue through the landscapes of Castilla-Leon to Madrid, to Spain's cosmopolitan capital, Madrid.

Dinner will be at Restaurant Palacio de Cibeles. The restaurant is located on the white facade of the palace in the historic centre of Madrid and features traditional Spanish cuisine updated by Chef Adolfo Muñoz of the emblematic Adolfo restaurant in Toledo (which you will also visit later in the tour). The restaurant has been awarded two Repsol suns, a national prize for gastronomy.

Overnight in Madrid.

Madrid is a melting pot for cuisine from all over the peninsula. Traditional Madrid dishes include the cocido adrilène (a type of stew). Callos or tripe is another of the typical dishes identified with local cuisine. Also, the humble and savory sopa de ajo (garlic soup) and caracoles (snails). Typical desserts are barquillos (rolled wafers) or buñuelos (fritters filled with custard, cream, chocolate, etc.).

DAY 6 – Sep 28 : Madrid (B, L)

Breakfast at hotel.

Professional program – Early morning visit to the Hospital Montepincipe (a private hospital) to review the facility and meet with local physicians to learn about the Spanish private healthcare system and meet with local doctors.

<https://www.internationalhm.com/en/about-hm/our-hospitals/hm-madrid>

Mid-morning, commence your city tour to visit panoramically some of the city's main avenues including Gran Vía and Castellana Avenue where monumental fountains are located which have become famous as venues where soccer fans (in this soccer crazy city...) have celebrated important victories (Cibeles for Real Madrid and Neptuneo for Atletico Madrid).

Following this, explore the world famous Prado Museum. Opened in November 1819 the Prado Museum (Museo Nacional del Prado) was created with the double aim of showing the works of art that belonged to the Spanish Crown and demonstrate to the rest of Europe that Spanish art was of equal merit of any other national school. It features one of the world's finest collections of European art, from the 12th century to the early 19th century, based on the former Spanish Royal Collection and not only houses the largest collection of Velazquez and Goya masterpieces, but other genial artists can be found such as Rembrandt, El Greco, Rubens, Titian, Hieronymus Bosch, Tintoretto, Caravaggio, Van Dyck and Albrecht Durer. Although founded as a museum of paintings and sculpture, it also contains important collections of more than 8,000 drawings, 5,000 prints, 1,000 coins and medals and almost 2,000 decorative objects and works of art. Sculpture is represented by more than 1,000 works and by a smaller number of sculptural fragments. The painting collection compromises about 7,800 paintings of which only about 900 are at public display, mainly because the museum's lack of space for it. A recently opened wing enlarged the display area by about 400 paintings, and it is currently used mainly for temporary expositions. El Prado is one of the most visited sites in Madrid, and it is considered to be among the greatest museums of art in the world. www.museodelprado.es

Lunch will be at Las Cuevas del Duque (The Duke's Caves). This unique restaurant is located in the caves of an 18-century building that originally serviced the Alba manor house as food cellars and goods warehouse. During the Spanish Civil War, the building was badly damaged, but The Duke's Caves were renovated and became a restaurant in 1960 and for six decades it has been a reference for lovers of history and classical culinary art in the capital. The specialty is Iberians with knife-cut ham and roasts of Segovia-style lamb and suckling pig but its menu features a variety of creative recipes and culinary specialties, where differentiated quality agri-food products prevail.

In the afternoon, continue your city tour see some of its most emblematic sites. During the different historical periods, the city grew from the old town known as Madrid of the Habsburgs (the Dynasty from the XV to XVIII century), where Madrid became the capital of a huge Empire. Visit the charming corner of the downtown area seeing places such as the Plaza Mayor, Plaza de la Villa and more.

Then visit the impressive Royal Palace, former residence of the Spanish Kings (which today still remains in use for important official ceremonies) beautifully furnished and decorated, and admire the official Reception rooms, Museum area, Royal Chapel, Throne room and the private rooms of King Carlos III and Queen Isabel II.

Evening at leisure.

Overnight in Madrid.

DAY 7 – Sep 29 : Madrid – Granada (B, L)

Granada has a beautiful, scenic setting with the snow-capped Sierra Nevada mountain range towering in the background. It was an important Islamic kingdom in middle age but it reached its maximum splendor in XIVth century, when the city was the capital of the Islamic kingdom Nasrid, the last Islamic kingdom in the peninsula and a very sophisticated royal family, promoting the development of literature, art and science. In 1492 finally, it passed to the Crown of Castile, transforming the city.

Nothing typifies Granada like the Alhambra, the hilltop 13th-century fortress palace of the Nasrid kings, and its cypress tree-studded Generalife gardens. Sense the presence of sultans and courtesans of an earlier era roaming the halls and patios intricately embellished with cedarwood, stucco and geometric mosaics. A fascinating district in Granada is the Alcaiceria close to the Cathedral, a neighbourhood of narrow streets and alleyways decorated with Moorish-styled arches. It was originally the site of the Great Bazaar of Granada in medieval times but was burnt down in 1843. Today it is home to a number of craft and souvenir shops selling ceramics, silks, jewellery and spices. The Albaicin is an old Arab Quarter made up of a labyrinth of narrow streets and a walk through this neighbourhood with its ancient Spanish/Muslim architecture will take you back to historical times on a trip to Spain. The city is situated on the banks of the River Darro with its 5 bridges and a stroll will be rewarded with a wonderful array of distinguished Arab houses, ancient churches and mosques, lovely plazas convents as well as many pleasant bars and restaurants.

Breakfast at hotel. This morning, leave Toledo and continue south through Castilla-La-Mancha into Andalusia, the most history-rich and evocative of Spain's autonomous regions with a great diversity of landscapes - mountain ranges, countryside and its coasts on both the Mediterranean and Atlantic. Home of flamenco, sherry, and the country's most spectacular festivities and bullfights it also offers three of the grandest cities in all of Europe: Seville, Granada, and Córdoba.

Arrive in Granada and check in to the hotel.

Lunch will be at Restaurant El Coso. Located in the Plaza de Toros de Granada, the restaurant building dates back to 1928, and each dish is a unique experience of Mediterranean flavours and aromas.

After lunch, you will have a free time to commence your exploration of this historic city independently.

Andalusia cuisine reflects the melting pot of cultures evident in the region. The Romans taught the Andalusians how to cultivate wheat and vines and used the fish from the seas to produce the best "garum" in the empire. The Arabs taught the Andalusians how to grow fruit and vegetables. They used irrigation systems and improved the cultivation of olive trees and the production of oil and of all the Spanish regions, this region uses the most olive oil in its cuisine.

Bordering the Mediterranean and Atlantic, its seas provide many types of fish including sole, sea bass, white sea bream, red snapper, snapper, hake, red mullet, sardines, anchovies, plaice, king prawns, octopus and crayfish and typically imaginative dishes include red tuna cooked with onions and melva fish stew. The Andalusian market garden has an abundance of varied products as the southern aspect of the region allows for the harvesting of 5 plantings of most fruit and vegetables per year, which means that strawberries, eggplant, artichokes, tomatoes, leeks, and a cornucopia of fruit and veg are available year-round. The most famous cold soup, Gazpacho, is from this region and other cold soups include poleá, zoque, salmorejo and almorojo (an almond soup). Other notable dishes include paellas, fried fish (often called pescaíto frito), gambas (shrimp), oxtail stew, Andalusian tripe, the jamones (hams) of Jabugo, Valle de los Pedroches and Trevélez. Typical drinks in the area include anise, wine and sherry.

In the evening, experience a Flamenco show at Las Cuevas "Los Tarantos" located within a former cave home in the Sacromonte neighborhood of Granada. Founded in 1972 by Don Jose and Dona Concepcion Martin Quesada Maya Maya, the cave was transformed into a special venue for Zambra style flamenco, typical of the region of Granada.

Overnight in Granada.

Flamenco is a form of popular artistic expression representing a long-standing tradition that appears on the UNESCO's list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

The art form combines vocal music, dance and musical accompaniment rooted fundamentally in Andalusia and other regions like Murcia and Extremadura. This cultural expressive vehicle dating back to the 18th century is the most emblematic of Andalusian folklore and the most renowned form of artistic expression in Spain. Flamenco has become a true identity for numerous communities, such as the gypsy ethnic group, where it is transmitted from generation to generation through dynasties of artists, families, flamenco clubs, numerous important festivals, schools and flamenco tablaos, whose numbers are growing each year.

Flamenco artists are able to express a multitude of different feelings through the medium of vocal music (cante) and dancing (baile). Cante can not only be accompanied by the flamenco guitar, but also by castanets, a percussion box known as "el cajón", hand-clapping and heel-clicking, whose rhythms are broken down into diverse "palos" or varieties (toná, soleá, seguiriya, fandango, sevillanas, etc.) based on factors, such as the song's character or origin. Baile, in turn, has a complex technique and its interpretation varies according to the individual performer.

DAY 8 – Sep 30 : Granada (B, D)

Breakfast at hotel.

In the morning, visit the Alhambra Palace*, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, which overlooks the city from the top of a hill. Granada's Cathedral. It has an extensive series of beautiful palaces and gardens dating back to the 14th Century. It has been a fortress, a palace and a city within a city. Its architecture is dazzling. In the centre of the Alhambra is the immensely large Palace of Charles V, a magnificent example of Spanish Renaissance architecture. This complex was the residences of the Kings of Granada. Adjacent to the Alhambra is the Generalife, the "Garden of Paradise" and a series of beautifully laid-out gardens containing courtyards, archways, pathways, pools, fountains, waterfalls and flowers.

 tickets to the Alhambra Palace are strictly capacity controlled and must be purchased well in advance. They cannot be purchased on a group basis as specific individual names are required and there is therefore always the possibility that they may not be available at the time of an individual traveler's registration with us – another reason to book early !.

Independent lunch.

In the afternoon, city tour visiting the Cathedral and the Royal Chapel. Its stunning interior contains some wonderful sculptures and interesting glass windows.

The Chapel, is the burial place of many Catholic Monarchs who were the unifiers of the different peninsula kingdoms in the 15th century, including Queen Isabella (who encouraged Christopher Columbus to sail across the Atlantic). Dating back to 1506, it was constructed in Gothic style, when Renaissance style building had been going on in Castile for some time. It is famous for its mosaics and includes works by Doménico Fancelli and Spanish Masters such as Gil de Hontañón, Juan de Badajoz el Viejo and Lorenzo Vázquez.

Dinner will be at Restaurant Mirador de Morayma located in a traditional country house in Granada's ancient Moorish quarter, the Albayzín. This elegant restaurant has a breathtaking view of the Alhambra and features an exquisitely mastered variety of traditional Granadian cuisine, as well as a wide range of wines, including the owner's own ecological wine produced at Alquería de Morayma, a country estate in the Alpujarra region.

Overnight in Granada.

DAY 9 - Oct 1 : Granada - Cordoba – Seville (B, L)

Cordoba has been the centre of several civilizations, Roman, Arabic and Christian which have all left their mark on the city. It became a city of great importance, when originally founded by the Romans, but reached its zenith under the rule of the Moorish Muslims, especially between the 9th and 10th centuries, when it became the capital of the Caliphate and, at which time, it was the most populated city in the world with close to 1 million inhabitants. It therefore has many archaeological sites from each period of occupation including the Alcazar (fortress) built by the Christians in 1328, the remains of a Roman wall, a temple, forum, amphitheatre and, from the Moors occupation, The Great Mosque of Cordoba.

Cordoba's medieval quarter is called "La Judería" (The Jewry) as it was once the home of the Jewish community. It is now a labyrinth of winding, narrow streets, shady courtyards and picturesque squares. It also has several interesting museums including the Centro Flamenco Fosforito, probably the best flamenco museum in Andalusia and the Museo de Bellas Artes (Museum of Fine Arts), the main art gallery of Cordoba mainly exhibiting paintings by local masters.

Breakfast at hotel.

Physicians - Early morning visit to Hospital Virgen de Las Nieves, a public hospital to learn about the Spanish public healthcare system and meet with local doctors.

Afterwards, continue north west through Andalusia to the old Caliphate capital of Cordoba.

Lunch will be at Bodegas Mezquita Céspedes located at the foot of the Mezquita, in the heart of Córdoba's Jewish Quarter specializing in traditional Cordoban cuisine.

In the afternoon, enjoy a city tour of Cordoba starting at the Great Mosque of Cordoba, also known as the Mezquita. It is one of the world's largest and greatest Islamic buildings and is a symbol of the importance and sophistication of the Islamic period as it related to Cordoba at a time when it was Western Europe's largest and most cultural city. Its sober external appearance of the building is a huge contrast with the fabulous spectacle inside, a world of 850 columns and arches, in granite and marble, combining many colors. Following the conquest of Cordoba by the Christians, the Mezquita was used as a cathedral which took 250 years to complete and because of this, shows off a range of architectural styles including Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque.

Then walk through the old Jewish quarter (La Judería) with its narrow streets and small squares and see the nearby Roman bridge which is still in use. Finish in the Alcazar, a royal residence of Christian medieval kings from 1328 and where Ryes Catolicos lived and organized all battles for the expulsion of Muslims in the peninsula, in 15th century. This fortress, includes a castle with battlements and attractive gardens.

After the tour, continue west through Andalusia with its landscapes of the endless olive trees to your final base of the tour, Seville.

Evening at leisure. Overnight in Seville.

DAY 10 - Oct 2 : Seville (B, D)

Sevilla is Andalucía's most self-assured, and most sophisticated city - the hometown of the passionate Carmen and the lusty Don Juan and probably the most ornately decorated city in Spain. No country does baroque like the Spanish, and no city does Spanish baroque like Sevilla, where the style represents the hybrid offspring of Moorish decoration and the Catholic insistence on turning every abstract curlicue of Islam into a Christian angel's wing.

It is a city of undeniable monumentality hosting 3 UNESCO World Heritage Sites, the Real Alcázar Palace, the largest Gothic Cathedral in Europe and the General Archive of the Indies. La Giralda, the tower attached to the cathedral, is a city icon affording a spectacular viewpoint of the city with its courtyards of orange trees, typical in Andalusia, and a bird's eye view of the Cathedral itself.

As the first major city in the heart of Andalucía to return to Spanish hands, Sevilla has a markedly Christian countenance, and the city is studded with churches and former convents funded by the riches that flowed into the city from its 16th to 18th century trade monopoly with the New World when it became the port and location of all institutions that controlled all trade with America. Today, it is the beautiful capital of Andalusia, famous for the liveliness of its celebrations, the grandeur of its processions, flower-filled balconies and patios.

Sevilla cuisine is influenced by North Africa as evidenced in the honey-sweetened pastries and the abundant dates, almonds, saffron, and lemons. Gazpacho was made here with almonds and garlic long before tomatoes arrived from the New World, and breads are still baked in ancient ovens.

Breakfast at hotel.

Physicians - Morning medical conference at the hotel in Seville with both Canadian and local speakers. The keynote presentation will be on the Spanish Health Care System and discussion of common issues and challenges in Canada and Spain.

Partners - free time to start to explore this delightful walking city independently.

In the afternoon, enjoy a city tour, starting at the Cathedral - the third largest in the world after the Vatican and St. Paul's in London, built on the site of a 12th Century mosque, the minarets of which still exist. It is also an art gallery as it contains well-known works by artists such as Goya, Murillo and others. Inside the cathedral is the monumental tomb of Christopher Columbus supposedly containing his bones brought here from Cuba in 1898. The main chapel has possibly the largest altar in the world with a gold leaf design of the story of Jesus. The General Archive of the Indies is one of the most important document collections about the conquest of the New World. It is housed in a 16th Century building and has 80 million pages of documents! This is open to the public with exhibits including maps and documents relating to Spain's Colonial days. It is a story about Spain's discoveries, explorations and conquests with letters written by Christopher Columbus on display. Marvel at the views of the city from the cathedral's tower, La Giralda.

Then, a walk in the Quarter of Santa Cruz, a colorful maze of alleys, small squares and nice gardens and a visit to Maria Luisa Park and Plaza de España (Square of Spain) before visiting the Alcazar Palace.

The Alcazar Palace was built in the 1300's but expanded and reconstructed many times over the centuries. Today, it is still used as a Royal Palace with many rooms, magnificent halls and courtyards all hidden behind the walls. The Alcazar is divided into sections dating through a succession of eras which include Moorish (11th-12th Century), Gothic (13th Century), Mudéjar (14th Century), and Renaissance (15th-16th Century). The heart of the Alcazar is the Mudéjar Palace with its Mudéjar architecture (the Mudéjars were the Moors who stayed on in Spain after the Christians took over the region). There are also extensive gardens which are exotic in style with both Moorish and Renaissance influences.

Finish off the tour with a one hour boat cruise on the Guadalquivir River. Starting from the Torre del Oro, and reaching the Club Náutico and the Puente de la Barqueta, you will be able to admire the different bridges of the city and the pavilions of the Expo of 1929 and 1992, among other highlights of the city.

Dinner at Casa Manolo Leon Guadalquivir located across the river from the Jardines del Guadalquivir in the heart of the neighborhood of San Lorenzo in a 19th century Andalusian manor house. The restaurant was opened in 1999 by brothers Agustín and Manolo León and offers traditional Andalusian cuisine with an avant-garde touch.

Overnight in Seville.

DAY 11 - Oct 3 : Seville – Merida – Toledo (B, L)

Mérida, the capital of the Extremadura region, is a destination that brings the old Roman Empire back to life. Emerita Augusta, as it was previously known, was founded as a Roman colony in 25 BC under the order of the emperor Augustus and was one of the most important in Roman Hispania, endowed with all the comforts of a large Roman city.

Today, this World Heritage City still boasts a Roman theatre which is over 2,000 years old and is still in use. As well as the city's highlight, the Ampitheatre, a short walk through the town will reveal numerous other landmarks that serve as a reminder of the town's past: a temple, the circus, the thermal baths, aqueducts, arches... Quiet streets, squares that invite you to take a break, the banks of the Guadiana river with green spaces where you can go for a walk, visits to landmarks such as the Arab Citadel and gastronomy that makes you want to linger over lunch are some of the reasons to visit this laid back, provincial town.

Breakfast at hotel.

This morning depart Seville and head north through Andalucia, past the Sierra Morena mountains into Extremadura, a region of contrasts with exceptional monumental sites, varied natural landscapes (which are a favourite with birdwatchers and also home to plentiful wildlife such as deer, otters and even lynxes) and its famous wild black pigs, which feed on acorns and go on to become the famous "Jamón Ibérico" (Iberian ham), the most highly-prized of Spain's cured hams.

Close to Merida, make a visit to a local vineyard. Tempranillo has traditionally been the favorite grape variety of the region as it responds well to the regional terroir and Extremadura's vineyards are also home to local white varieties such as Cayetana.

Lunch will be just outside the town at the Parador de Mérida.

Extremadura cuisine is quite simple in nature and offers a different product in each subregion with the crops and livestock which can be found in the varied landscapes of the region (dry plains, luxuriant pastures, mountains, marshes, meadows and fields) influencing the local dishes. One of its main influences over the centuries has been the convents, which surprised illustrious visitors seeking rest, peace and good food in the monasteries and abbeys with many culinary delights. Yuste, Guadalupe, Alcántara and other refuges gave hospitality to high-ranking noblemen, serving them delicacies which satisfied even the very demanding taste of the emperor Carlos V.

In the afternoon, enjoy a short city tour of Merida where you will visit the major well preserved archeological sites including the Roman Theatre, Amphitheatre and The Roman Circus. The monumental Roman Theatre was built between the years 16 and 15 BCE and, at the height of its splendour, it could hold up to 6,000 spectators. With its excellent acoustic conditions, it is still in use each summer as the venue for a major theatre festival. Meanwhile, the Roman Amphitheatre was inaugurated in 8 BCE and could seat up to 15,000 people over three terraced areas. The purpose of this structure was leisure, with spectacles featuring contests between gladiators, wild animals and, on occasion, between the gladiators and the animals.

Afterwards drive east into Castilla-La-Mancha region, a land famous for its arts and crafts, for the unique monuments to be seen in its towns and cities, and for being the setting for the adventures of the famous literary hero Don Quixote of La Mancha, to the former Spanish capital, and now UNESCO town, of Toledo.

Overnight in Toledo.

DAY 12 – Oct 4 : Toledo (B, D)

The saying goes that if you only had one day to spend in Spain, it should be spent in Toledo and the city is known as La Ciudad Imperial (Imperial City) for a reason; this is Iberia's Rome with a cultural array of mosques, synagogues, churches and museums, plus the added high of a lofty setting, perched on a rocky ridge above Río Tajo. Like the Middle East grafted onto Catholic Spain, Toledo's labyrinth of narrow streets, plazas and inner patios is reminiscent of the medinas (towns) of Damascus or Fez. Yet from Toledo's heart rises the Gothic grandeur of the cathedral and the grim composure of the Alcázar fortress. The artistic legacy bequeathed by the city's former inhabitants of Romans, Jews and Muslims is reflected in this intriguing mosaic of architecture, as well as in its cultural values.

Breakfast at hotel.

This morning, soak in the atmosphere of the historic citadel of Toledo as you tour its many sites and relics – the Cathedral, one of the finest in Europe, with stained glass windows, intricate woodwork and wrought-iron grilles, plus a sacristy that doubles as a fine arts museum; the Iglesia de Santo Tome where you can see El Greco's greatest masterpiece, "The Burial of the Count Orgaz"; and the dazzling Moorish-designed Synagogue Sta Maria la Blanca. Wander around the narrow streets, taking time to relax at the main square, Plaza de Zocodover, before touring outside the walls where it is important to capture the city's dramatic profile, as immortalized on the canvases of El Greco.

In the afternoon, escape the confines of the walled city to visit Viñedos Cigarral Santa María by Adolfo. Take a tour of the vineyard, learn about the wine making process and taste the family's Pago del Alma wine. Afterwards, participate in a cooking class to introduce you to the diverse cuisine of the area and finish off the day with an exquisite dinner sampling the best of Castilla-La Mancha cuisine.

<https://cigarralsantamaria.com/>

In Castilla-La Mancha, the culinary habits reflect the origin of foods eaten by shepherds and peasants. Wheat and grains are a dominant product and ingredient. They are used in bread, soups, gazpacho manchego, crumbs, porridge, etc. The cuisine is quite diverse and includes delicious meats, fresh trout and another local delicacy, river crabs and one of the most abundant ingredients is garlic. Popular dishes are mountain rabbit, hare, migas (fried breadcrumbs), morteruelo (pork liver pate), pistos asadillo (roast peppers and tomatoes with garlic) and gazpacho manchego. Sweets include turrón (nougat) and yemas (small egg-yolk cakes). Two products in particular symbolise the gastronomy of the area: manchego cheese and Valdepenas wine.

Overnight in Toledo.

Travel insurance information... Coverage available through Manulife Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance to protect you against the unexpected due to, in particular, limited provincial health care coverage afforded to Canadians while traveling overseas and the cancellation provisions inherent in your booking. We offer the following insurance coverage options through Manulife Insurance, one of Canada's leading insurance providers –

NON-MEDICAL INCLUSIVE PLAN

There are significant inherent cancellation penalties associated with your booking as detailed in our booking terms and conditions and this insurance package provides coverage for cancellation penalties if you should have to cancel due to medical, or other listed, reasons either relating to yourself or a member of your immediate family. It also covers you for trip interruption costs short notice return flight home etc) for medical reasons again, either relating to yourself or an immediate family member as well as flight and travel accident and baggage insurance.

ALL INCLUSIVE PLAN

This plan provides coverage for all the components in the Non-medical Inclusive plan, plus unlimited health coverage while in the destination

"Cancel for any reason (CFAR)" coverage - NEW and at no additional cost !!

So long as you purchase either of the two insurance policies above at the same time as your tour booking, you are automatically entitled to this added benefit of CFAR coverage whereby, if you need to cancel your tour booking up to 14 days or more before departure for any reason, your policy will refund you up to a maximum of 50% of the cancellation penalties incurred. This is excellent peace of mind coverage to protect you against (50% of the) cancellation penalties incurred in a situation where the reason for cancellation is not one of the regular covered risks in your policy (ie it is essentially "change of mind" insurance).

PREMIUM PROTECTION PLAN ("PPP")

As a third option, Manulife is now also offering a new enhanced travel insurance policy, their Premium Protection Plan ("PPP"). This is Manulife's most comprehensive coverage, providing all the same types of coverage as the All-Inclusive plan (above) but with higher covered amounts in most areas. It is also a simplified policy in so much that, whereas the All-Inclusive plan and Non-medical Inclusive plan (above, and as is the case with most insurance company travel policies) have a list of specific covered events, the PPP offers cancellation coverage for any unexpected and unforeseen event (ie., any event, situation or circumstance that is beyond your control that prevents you from travelling) with only a few exclusions that apply.

An overview of the PPP may be found by clicking here

A comparison of the enhanced benefits provided by the PPP compared to Manulife's regular All Inclusive plan may be found by clicking here

A major benefit of the PPP is that coverage for reimbursement of inherent cancellation penalties under the Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR)" coverage is increased to 80% of the cancellation penalties incurred for all cancellation up to 7 days or more before departure.

Please note, the PPP is only available to clients under the age of 75 (at the date of purchase of the insurance coverage) and must be purchased at the same time as the travel tour booking is made (72 hour grace period).

A detailed overview of coverage benefits and limitations of each insurance policy that we offer through Manulife may be found at -

For residents of Ontario, simply accept your choice of insurance (Non-medical Inclusive, All-Inclusive or Premium Protection coverage) on our online registration form and we will apply the premium above on your invoice confirmation (if using our pdf registration form, enter the applicable premium from the above table when completing the registration form)

For residents of Canadian provinces other than Ontario, insurance regulations state that travel insurance should be taken out directly with Manulife Insurance, albeit through a direct web link hosted on our web site, ie you should purchase your travel insurance policy by simply following the link below to take advantage of our preferred rates with Manulife) via our company's exclusive Manulife link:

<https://www.igoinsured.com/Direct/ManulifeGlobal.aspx?ag=ONTOTPR&lang=E>

Non-Canadian residents

For residents of countries outside of Canada (including the USA), insurance regulations allow us to sell "Trip Cancellation" insurance (this policy includes both trip cancellation and trip interruption coverage but not medical coverage). Hence it is not possible for non-Canadian residents to purchase either the All Inclusive or Premium Protection plans from Manulife. We do find that many of our overseas clients already have medical insurance through other channels and therefore, if this is the case, you may purchase "Trip Cancellation" coverage by following the link below to purchase the "Trip Cancellation" insurance policy (taking advantage of our preferred rates with Manulife) via our company's exclusive Manulife link:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Travel insurance that may be available through your credit card

When considering any of the travel insurance policies above, if you believe you may have coverage through your credit card we would strongly advise checking with the credit card company the actual coverage afforded to ensure it covers medical, trip cancellation and trip interruption as not all of these items are covered (or may only offer limited coverage as to trip duration or insured $amount in the event of a claim - sometimes as low as only $1,000 per person) by all kinds of cards. Also, most coverage through credit card benefits does not include Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR) coverage.
