The Destinations... VIETNAM, LAOS & CAMBODIA (including the Temples of Angkor)

Besides war museums and French colonial-style buildings, Vietnam boasts varied styles of religious monuments, from ancient Khmer-style carved sandstone temples to centuries old tiered-roof Chinese pagodas and palaces, as well as nature's contribution of thousands of jutting limestone outcrops with hidden grottoes, lush forests and tranquil beaches and islands. We travel through the heart of this fascinating country - from the wide open French style boulevards of vibrant Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon) and the lush farmlands of the Mekong Delta in the south to the capital, and city of lakes, Hanoi, in the north. Our journey will also include historic Hue and charming Hoi An - both UNESCO designated World Heritage sites.

Serene, timeless Laos is one of Asia's most unvisited and unchanged countries. This once-powerful kingdom known as Lan Xang (Million Elephants) was founded in the 14th century with the help of the Khmers, and went on to become one of the largest kingdoms in Southeast Asia until its demise in the late 19th century. Bisected and bordered by the Mekong River, omnipresent symbol of Indochina, Laos today is an amalgam of cultural influences; Theravada Buddhism, animism, France, and the socialist ideal. Our time will be spent in the charming spiritual centre of Luang Prabang - a peaceful place on the banks of the Mekong River where the legendary hospitality, resilience and friendliness of the Lao people is much in evidence. Laos is Old Asia preserved.

In Cambodia, delve into the history of the Khmer Empire from the 9th century as you explore some of the temples of the Angkor Park (including the masterful Angkor Wat itself) just a few kilometers from the colonial city of Siem Reap. Well preserved stone temple ruins dating back about 1,000 years cover an area of 200 sq. kilometers. It is easy to spend several days exploring here, taking in the thousands of exquisite statues and bas relief carvings that adorn the walls of seemingly endless temple buildings and chedis (stone spires). And take in the highlights of Phnom Penh, the vibrant bustling capital with its mansions and tree-lined boulevards amidst monumental Angkorian architecture.

Experience the warmth and hospitality of these three cultures as you meet friendly people, sample mouth-watering dishes, cruise waters that will carve unforgettable memories in your mind, bargain at local stalls and learn about the local health system and its age old traditional healing techniques – an incredible tour of the jewels of South East Asia.

Phnom Penh is the vibrant bustling capital of Cambodia. Situated at the confluence of three rivers, the mighty Mekong, the Bassac and the great Tonle Sap, the capital city has an almost provincial charm and tranquility with French colonial mansions and tree-lined boulevards amidst monumental Angkorian architecture. A mixture of Asian exotica and, the famous Cambodian hospitality, awaits the visitors to the capital of the Kingdom of Cambodia.

Morning arrival in Phnom Penh, where you will be met by your guide who will assist you in obtaining your Cambodia entry visa (VIP fast track process). Transfer to your hotel for check-in and some time to relax before lunch at a local restaurant.

Welcome lunch will be arranged at Romdeng restaurant which is run by an organization that teaches former street kids in the principles of hospitality. Romdeng is set in a lovely colonial building with an atmospheric garden and serves Khmer food.

In the afternoon visit the Tuol Sleng Museum of Genocidal Crimes. Prior to 1975, Tuol Sleng was a high school. When the Khmer Rouge, and Pol Pot's security forces, came to power it was converted into the S-21 prison and interrogation facility. Inmates were systematically tortured, sometimes over a period of months, to extract confessions, after which they were executed at the killing fields of Choeung Ek. S-21 processed over 17,000 people only seven of whom survived and those who died during torture were buried in mass graves in the prison ground. The building now serves as a museum, a memorial and a testament to the madness of the Khmer Rouge regime. The prison kept extensive records, leaving thousands of photos of their victims, many of which are on display. Then continue to the outskirts of the city to Choeung Ek, better known as the Killing Fields.

Dinner will be at Mangosteen restaurant specializing in Indochine dishes with also a range of Western dishes and a varied choice of vegetarian options.

Evening at leisure. Overnight in Phnom Penh.

DAY 3 – Oct 26 – Phnom Penh – Siem Reap (B, L)

In the morning, physicians will visit the National Pediatric Hospital www.nphcambodia.org in Phnom Penh.

Non- Physicians will visit the Russian Market, the best place in the city for wooden and stone carvings, old coins, jewellery, and Cambodian and Chinese silk clothes.

Mid morning, all participants will see the sights of Phnom Penh in a cyclo - an original Phnom Penh means of transportation and a very fun way to explore this lively city.

Start your tour at the National Museum which was designed by George Groslier and the Ecole des Arts Cambodgiens. The museum was built in traditional Khmer style in 1917 and was inaugurated in 1920 by King Sisowath. It houses the world's foremost collection of ancient Khmer archaeological, religious, and artistic artefacts from the 4th to the 13th centuries. Over 5,000 pieces are on display, constituting the repository of the Kingdom's cultural wealth. In addition, the roof space is home to a large bat colony!

Lunch will be served at a local restaurant .

Continue through the interesting French Quarter to the Royal Palace. This palace dates back to 1866 and was the last palace built during the French colonial period. The same complex houses the Silver Pagoda, named for the over 5000 heavy silver tiles that cover its floors. Its original name is Wat Prakeo, meaning Temple of the Emerald Buddha. In this temple you will view a collection of Buddhas in gold, silver, crystal, and bronze.

Transfer to Phnom Penh Airport for late afternoon domestic flight to Siem Reap. Upon arrival at Siem Reap International Airport, you will be welcomed by your local English speaking guide who will accompany you to your hotel for check in.

Rest of the day at leisure to relax at the hotel or maybe discover Siem Reap on a stroll through its beautiful pagodas and the colourful market.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 4 - Oct 27 – Siem Reap (B, L, D)

Siem Reap is the provincial capital city of Siem Reap province. Until recently the one horse town of Siem Reap was just a dusty track with a few shop fronts but in a matter of years it has been transformed into the gleaming gateway to one of the World's archaeological marvels - the Temples of Angkor, or Angkor Park which is over 40 km² and is home of more than 100 temples dating from the 7th and 11th centuries, such temples being devoted to Buddhist and Hindu deities. Thirty-nine kings reigned during the Angkor era, and this uninterrupted period of peace and prosperity created the most powerful kingdom in South East Asia, until its fall in the 15th century, when the Siamese army finally succeeded in sacking it. Although the Khmers knew about the city of Angkor, it was only when the French botanist Henri Mouhot led an exploration to the area in 1861 that this 'lost city' aroused international interest.

In the morning, visit the Great City of Angkor Thom that was the last capital of the Great Khmer Empire under the reign of Jayavarman VII. This city is surrounded by an 8 m high wall, each side of the city is 4 km long. It draws a perfect square as you access this town through 5 gates; 4 of them represent the cardinal points and the 5th one the Victory Gate was the one leading directly to the Royal Palace Area. You will arrive via the South Gate, an impressive stone gate carved with Elephants and 4 giant faces. On each side is a row of 54 gods or demons holding the sacred Naga snake. From here you continue and enter the city and arrive at the Bayon Temple. This temple lies exactly in the center of the city. The particularity of this monument is the 54 towers representing the 54 provinces of the then Great Khmer Empire. Each tower has 4 faces. Continue by foot to the Baphuon, the Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King.

Lunch at Sugar Palm restaurant.

This afternoon, take a Tuk-Tuk to visit the biggest religious temple in the world; the magnificent Angkor Wat Temple. Built by Suryavarman II, in the early 12th century, Angkor Wat is constructed following the model of the temple mountain symbolizing the Mount Meru, home of the gods. Considered as the masterpiece of the Khmer architecture, this Vishnuite temple is the King's funerary temple. These are the main reasons to explain the West exposure of the temple. Inside the temple the walls are covered by carvings and bas-reliefs depicting the Hindu mythology and the wars Suryavarman II made during his reign. As well, Angkor Wat is well known for the 2000 Apsaras dancers decorating the temple. Return back to your hotel after viewing the sunset over Angkor Wat.

Dinner will be at a local restaurant with a traditional Apsara dance show. Dancers, singers and musicians will bring ancient Khmer culture to life in spectacular surroundings while you will enjoy the very best in Cambodian cuisine.

Overnight in Siem Reap

Bayon, Angkor Thom

Angkor Wat

DAY 5 – Oct 28 – Siem Reap - Luang Prabang (Laos) (B, D)

In the morning, embark on an interesting boat trip on the Tonlé Sap Lake, where you will have the opportunity to learn about life on the lake. Tonle Sap is South East Asia's largest freshwater lake with its size varying greatly depending on the season. During the dry season it is roughly 2,500 km², swelling to about four times its size during the wet season: 10,000 km²! Board a local boat and visit Kampong Phluk, a village where we'll see houses on stilts that are submerged when Tonlé Sap Lake extends. On the way, you will pass floating houses and impressive flooded forests, portraying life of the local people on the water.

Rest of the day at leisure until the transfer to the airport for your afternoon flight to Luang Prabang.

Luang Prabang, nestled in the valley, surrounded by high mountains and situated along the Mekong, was once the former capital of Laos, during the Lane Xang Kingdom from the 13th to 16th centuries. Nowadays, it is renowned as the cultural and religious capital of Laos, and its UNESCO designation as a World Heritage Site in 1995 has ensured the preservation of a mixture of traditional Lao and French colonial architecture which add to the town's unique character and charm. The magnificent temples in Luang Prabang are considered among the most beautiful in South East Asia.

Arrive Luang Prabang (Laos) where you will be met by your guide who will assist you in obtaining your Laos entry visa (VIP fast track process). Transfer to your hotel for check-in and some time to relax before dinner at L'Elephant restaurant.

Overnight in Luang Prabang.

DAY 6 – Oct 29 - Luang Prabang – Kamu Lodge (B, L, D)

After breakfast, embark for a cruise along the Mekong River to Kamu Lodge. On the way, stop at Pak Ou Caves. Locally referred to as Tam Ting, these two caves are carved out of towering limestone cliffs and contain thousands of gold lacquered Buddha statues. They range in size from a few centimeters to the size of a human. The caves are as well a destination for local pilgrimages.

Continuing upriver for about an 1 hour we reach the Kamu Lodge. Located in a unique site on the banks of the Mekong, the Kamu Lodge offers a very original Lao experience in an amazing environment to relax and participate in different activities from which you will learn about the local daily life of the Kamu people.

The Lodge features private canvas tents (with en-suite washroom facilities) and, faithful to local style, each one is protected from the elements by a thatch roof which allows the lodges' grounds to harmoniously blend with surrounding nature. A variety of activities are available including -

- Rice planting and harvesting in surrounding rice fields
- Gold panning (January to June) in the Mekong. Anything you find is yours!
- Jungle walks to search for medicinal plants
- Forest trekking
- Traditional fishing techniques. You can sample your catch for dinner!
- Visits to local villages

Dinner and overnight at the Lodge

DAY 7 – Oct 30 – Kamu Lodge – Luang Prabang (B, L, D)

After breakfast, enjoy free time to either relax or engage in some of the activities offered by the lodge before heading back on the Mekong River to Luang Prabang with a possible stop en route at Ban Xang Hai, a specialized village to product rice alcohol. “Lao Lao” or “Lao Khao” is a very strong rice alcohol usually made in rural areas. It is normally drunk for social events such as welcome to people, wedding, birth, etc...

After lunch, visit the Lao-Chinese Provincial Hospital in Luang Prabang to tour the facilities and meet with a local acupuncture doctor.

Then visit the local SOS Children’s Village (a non-profit, non-government, voluntary organization), on the outskirts of the ancient capital of the former Laotian kingdom of Lan Xang, near the village of Ban Pong on the main road to Muang Khai. SOS Children’s Villages is the world’s largest private child welfare organization operating 400 villages in 131 countries. They provide needy children stable homes and the prospect of an independent future. Every child lives in a ‘family’ house with trained local women serving as ‘mothers’. Many orphaned children from the local hill tribes have found a new home in the Village in Luang Prabang. Most of them speak only their own tribal dialect and have not learned the Laotian language. The Village has 14 family houses and an SOS Nursery for 100 children, both from the local community and from the Village. The site, which was donated to SOS Children by the local authorities, includes a paddy field and a pond. You will be able to provide medical advice to the caregivers as part of your visit. An SOS School with 12 classrooms for 650 primary and secondary pupils is currently under construction.

<http://www.sos-childrensvillages.org/>

Return to Luang Prabang in time to partake in a Laos cooking class at Tamarind Restaurant.

Lao cuisine is heavily influenced by the flavours of neighbouring Thailand. The food is prepared using fresh ingredients and most dishes are flavoured with lime, lemongrass, coriander, and chilli. A traditional Lao meal is served with ‘khao niaw’, or sticky rice, which is rolled in to small balls and used to pick up the food. Typical dishes include ‘tam mak hung’, a salad prepared with green papaya, and ‘laab’, a dish of minced meat mixed with mint and chilli. The locals usually enjoy distilled rice wine, called ‘lao lao’, or a cold Beer Lao with their meal.

Experience the wonderful flavors of Lao cuisine with a Lao cooking class - a fun, hands-on way to learn about the ingredients involved and techniques used to create the local cuisine. And then, at the end of your preparation sit down to enjoy a delicious dinner which you have helped prepare.

Overnight in Luang Prabang.

DAY 8 – Oct 31 – Luang Prabang (B, L)

After breakfast your city tour begins at the former Royal Palace, now the National Museum. The Royal Palace was built in 1904 during the French colonial era for King Sisavang Vong and his family, and is now home to exhibits of art and jewels as well as the residence itself. From there, continue on foot to visit Wat Mai, with its unique 5 tiered roof and golden bas-reliefs. During Pimai, the Lao New Year, the small Buddha statue called Pra Bang normally housed in the Royal Palace Museum is brought and put on public display in this temple. Then visit Wat Sene with its beautiful golden façade.

Lunch will be at a local restaurant for sampling typical Luang Prabang style dishes.

This afternoon, visit the Traditional Arts & Ethnology Centre, a museum dedicated to exploring the rich diversity of Laos' ethnic minorities. Traditional costumes, tools, and artifacts are on display alongside in-depth descriptions and written histories. It is a great opportunity to gain an insight in to the Lao people.

Then, you will visit the refreshing waters of the Kuang Si Waterfalls. These waterfalls cascade down a multilevel limestone formation creating a series of turquoise blue pools perfect for swimming in on a hot day (Note: when bathing, please wear a sarong). The jungle and dense woods surrounding the falls is filled with wildlife and pleasant walks can be taken along the natural footpaths. On the way back stop at stop at Ban Tha Pan to learn more about the Kamu way of living. Then stop at Ban Ou, a Lao Loum Village, the largest ethnic group in Laos. Finish with a stop at Ban Na Ouane a Hmong village. The Hmong people originated in the mountains of Southern China but despite their rich oral tradition there are no written records of their past except from accounts of outsiders. Thus Hmong history has been passed down through legends and ritual ceremonies from one generation to another. In the 1960s and '70s many Hmong were secretly recruited by the American army and the CIA to fight against communism in Laos.

Late afternoon, you will head up to the base of Mount Phou Si to ascend the 328 steps to the top of the hill. Enjoy the panoramic views of the city and surrounding countryside before descending to the evening hill tribe market. Browse for handmade textiles, handicrafts, and souvenirs sold by the Lao hill tribes who set up stalls every evening on the town's main street.

Evening at leisure. Overnight in Luang Prabang

DAY 9 – Nov 1 – Luang Prabang - Hanoi (B)

Before breakfast you have the opportunity a very special dawn visit to watch the monks collecting the alms. As the sun begins to rise, long lines of orange-robed monks leave their pagodas and walk barefoot down the streets collecting offerings from Luang Prabang residents. Alms giving is an integral part of the Buddhist philosophy, earning the giver merit, or 'bun', towards their next life, enhancing their chances of improving their existence next time around. Taking part in this daily ritual can be one of the highlights of a stay in Luang Prabang. You will be given a small food parcel which will have been freshly prepared that morning and your guide will give you a quick instruction in etiquette. It is a beautiful, serene ceremony that highlights the spiritualism of the Laos people.

Return to the hotel for breakfast.

Continue your cycling tour to Ock Pop Tock. This non-profit organization seeks to preserve traditional weaving techniques, a trade which was once an important source of income for many Lao families but is slowly fading out as modern technology has evolved. Spend time learning about the process of silk weaving from the initial stages of creating the dyes to the final process of loom weaving. From here take a short ride to the Elephant Asia Show, an outdoor museum focused on elephant preservation (subject to opening hours due to current refurbishment)

Afternoon at leisure until the transfer to the airport for your late afternoon flight to Hanoi.

Arrive Hanoi, (Vietnam) where you will be met by your guide who will assist you in obtaining your Vietnam entry visa (VIP fast track process). Transfer to your hotel for check-in.

Evening at leisure. Overnight in Hanoi.

DAY 10 – Nov 2 – Hanoi (B, L, D)

The charm from the French era still emerges in Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam. A city of broad boulevards lined with tamarind trees and numerous lakes, Hanoi combines harmoniously the liveliness of the Old Quarters with remarkable colonial architecture. Ranking amongst the world's most attractive and interesting cities, the city's placid air gives it a gracious, almost regal flavor, underscored by a rich history that traces back more than a thousand years from 1010 when it was the most important political centre of Vietnam. Although eclipsed by Hue during the Nguyen Dynasty as the country's capital in 1802, it regained it's position as the capital of French Indochina from 1902 to 1954 and, since then, the capital of North, and subsequesnt to the War and Reunification, the whole country.

A full day city tour of Vietnam's capital including the following sites and activities -

- Ho Chi Minh Complex: Completed in 1975 the complex contains Ho Chi Minh's mausoleum, his former stilt-house residence and the Ho Chi Minh museum. On the same complex is also the One Pillar Pagoda, founded by King Ly Thai To in 1049. This structure has become an important symbol for the people of Hanoi.
- The Temple of Literature: Originally built as a temple to Confucius, this is the site of Vietnam's first university dating back to 1070.
- The infamous Hoa Lo Prison, now a museum (formerly known as the "Hanoi Hilton" during the Vietnam (or as the local's call it, "American") war.

Lunch at a local restaurant

- For physicians, you will visit the Clinic for Traditional Eastern Methods in Hanoi for a demonstration and lecture by Dr. Huong, a practitioner in these methods for over 20 years. For several thousand years, Vietnamese Traditional Medicine has evolved under the shadows of Chinese Traditional Medicine, culture, and rule. Dr Huong is an expert in Traditional Eastern Methods through Acupuncture, Acupressure and Cagut Implantation. Non-physicians will visit the Hoan Kiem Lake and The Huc bridge.
- Cyclo tour through the Old Quarter: Also known as the 36 streets, this bustling area of narrow streets is home to literally thousands of small businesses and shopkeepers. It's a great place to explore, especially by cyclo, with plenty of photo opportunities all around you. Make a stop to walk along Hang Thuoc Bac meaning Herbal Medicine Street where many kinds of dried herbs are sold.

- Dinner is a cooking class at Madame Anh Tuyet's restaurant. Getting to know the food is also the great way of getting to know the country. Vietnamese food is healthy, simple to cook and delicious. A true Hanoian, Tuyet learned her culinary skills from her grandmother who used to cook for the French in the 1930's. Learn how to prepare and cook true northern Vietnamese cuisine before sitting down to enjoy a delectable meal.

Overnight in Hanoi.

DAY 11 – Nov 3 – Hanoi - Hue (B, L)

An early start this morning as you catch the first rays of the sun and a chance to see Hanoi waking up. Visit the Hoan Kiem lake where locals practice their morning exercises – Tai Chi, aerobics and badminton. Learn all about the Tai Chi exercises and their benefits.

Tai Chi is a type of internal Chinese martial art which has also developed a worldwide following for its health benefits and stress management. Medical studies support it's effectiveness as an alternative exercise as the slow, repetitive work involved in the technique opens the internal circulation (breath, body heat, blood, lymph etc.)

After breakfast physicians will visit the National Hospital of Traditional Medicine, the leading hospital in its field for the whole country of Vietnam. It is the largest establishment for treatment, research, and training in traditional medicine. The hospital has a total of 22 departments with two main centers that are divided in 3 main sections including clinical, para-clinical and functional section. Visit the various departments and meet with some of the best traditional specialists to learn about this form of medicine.

<http://nhtm.gov.vn/home>

Non-physicians will visit 54 Traditions Gallery and enjoy "H'mong hour". This is a unique opportunity for the group to interact with H'mong women from hill tribe villages and learn about their daily life: their families, their work and traditions etc.

Lunch will be at a local restaurant before continuing on to Buddhist Tran Quoc Pagoda on West Lake (one of the oldest in Vietnam) and Quan Thanh Temple (Taoist, dating from the Ly Dynasty). Later, visit the Museum of Ethnology, widely acknowledged as the best in the country where you may observe Vietnam's diverse culture through the Museum's unique presentation of artifacts and dress used in daily life, including an extensive display dedicated to Vietnam's 54 Ethnic minority peoples.

Transfer to the airport for evening flight to Hue. Upon arrival in Hue, transfer to hotel for check in. Overnight in Hue.

DAY 12 – Nov 4 – Hue (B, L, D)

Hue is the former imperial capital of Vietnam from where the Nguyen Dynasty of emperors ruled from 1802 till 1945, just 150 km from Hoi An. In 1687 the Viets made Hue their capital, and continued their expansion into Cham territory. It remained the capital under the Nguyen dynasty, which had thirteen emperors, the last of whom ruled until 1945. Hue is still the intellectual capital of Vietnam with 12 schools of higher learning. It maintained its cultural identity while other cities were accumulating foreign influences. The Nguyen dynasty left an Imperial city of citadels, palaces, tombs and temples set in the peaceful countryside bordering the Perfume River. Hue today has regained its royal demeanor and is a calm, peaceful and relaxed place to visit. The remaining French colonial garden houses and villas, quiet streets, riverbanks, and outlying tombs and pagodas that escaped damage – all give Hue a unique atmosphere of tranquility.

Start the morning with a cruise along the romantically named Perfume River which takes you by tranquil settings of gardens and lakes where Hue's best-known religious sites, the Thien Mu Pagoda and the mausoleum of former Emperor Minh Mang are located. After lunch, continue to the ancient walled Citadel containing the former Imperial Palace from where the Nguyen Dynasty ruled between 1802 and 1945. The Citadel was closely modeled along the lines of the Forbidden City in Beijing. Much was damaged by French aerial bombing and also in the Tet Offensive in 1968. Now however much of the city is being faithfully restored thanks to generous funding by UNESCO. Follow this tour of the Emperor's residence with a trip into the surrounding countryside to see the final resting place of the Emperors by visiting two of the most impressive Royal Tombs and finish with a visit to the lively Dong Ba market.

In the evening, enjoy a royal dinner with music performance at Hoa Mai restaurant of Huong Giang hotel.

Overnight in Hue.

DAY 13 – Nov 5 – Hue - Hoi An (B, L)

Once known as Faifo, Hoi An was one of the orient's major trading ports in the 16th and 17th centuries. Chinese, Japanese, French, English, Spanish, Portuguese and other traders had small communities here, and the old wooden houses, bridges and temples that remain are reminiscent of a Vietnam of centuries past. After the Thu Bon River, linking Hoi An to the sea, silted up, ocean going ships were no longer able to sail into town and trade moved 30km up the coast to Tourane, known nowadays as Danang. Despite the passing of 200 years and the ravages of the weather and war, the centre of Hoi An remains much the same as it was in its hayday and this absolutely charming and relaxed town has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage

After breakfast, leave Hue to drive over the beautiful Hai Van Pass (literally the 'Pass of Ocean & Clouds') - Vietnam's geographical and psychological boundary between north and south. The peak of the pass lies perpetually shrouded in clouds. Stop en route at the beautiful Non Nuoc Beach and the Cham Museum, which contains the finest collection of Cham sculpture in the world. In Danang you will visit the Marble Mountains, five sacred hills containing dozens of Buddhist shrines before proceeding to Hoi An.

After lunch, take a leisurely walking tour of the ancient town center of Hoi An and visit the sites of former merchants' homes, a 400 year-old Japanese Covered Bridge, and a Chinese Communal Hall. Then time for browsing and shopping in the one of the most colourful local marketplaces in all of South East Asia.

Evening at leisure. Overnight in Hoi An.

DAY 14 – Nov 6 - Hoi An (B, L)

Free time in the afternoon

Non-physicians will enjoy free time to relax at the beachfront resort – spend time by the pool or swim in the Gulf of Bac Bo.

DAY 15 – Nov 7 – Hoi An – Danang - Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) (B, L, D)

Saigon, Pearl of Orient, is the largest city and economic center. It is a blend of Chinese, French colonial and modern influences. The huge number of people, shops and stalls give Saigon, now named Ho Chi Minh City, a bustling atmosphere. Flocks of schoolgirls on bicycles, their traditional white “Ao Dai” tunics fluttering in the breeze; vendors engulfed in bright bubbles of balloons or pushing carts heaped with wares.*

Morning arrival in Saigon, where your guide will meet you and transfer you to your hotel for check-in. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant.

Transfer to nearby Danang airport for morning flight to Saigon.

Lunch will be at Hoa Tuc restaurant and afterwards, start your tour of this bustling city which unravels Saigon’s turbulent past and also provides a glimpse into the fascinating variety the city has to offer. Included in the tour are the landmark Reunification Hall, formerly known as the Presidential Palace. It was towards this modern building that North Vietnamese resistance fighters tanks (Viet Cong) rolled on the morning of April 30, 1975 as Saigon fell. This fascinating building is filled with history still fresh in the minds of many. See the fascinating War Remnants Museum with it’s unforgettable photo collections displaying the elements of the long struggle from both side’s perspectives. Then, the red-brick Catholic cathedral of Notre-Dame, the nearby 19th century Empire-style Post Office, and the Hotel de Ville or City Hall, all of which display classic examples of classical French colonial architecture in their indomitably European style.

Dinner is at Ancient Town restaurant. Overnight in Saigon.

Insurance information...

We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance to provide you with peace of mind due to, in particular, limited provincial health care coverage afforded to Canadians while traveling overseas and the cancellation provisions inherent in your booking. We offer two insurance coverage options –

Non-medical package – There are significant inherent cancellation penalties associated with your booking as detailed in our booking terms and conditions and this insurance package provides coverage for all monies paid for your trip if you should have to cancel due to medical, or other listed, reasons either relating to yourself or a member of your immediate family. It also covers you for trip interruption costs short notice return flight home etc) for medical reasons again, either relating to yourself or an immediate family member as well as flight and travel accident and baggage insurance.

Deluxe package – provides coverage for all the components in the non-medical package, plus unlimited health coverage while in the destination

Note, if you believe you may have coverage through your credit card we would strongly advise checking with the credit card company the actual coverage afforded to ensure it covers medical, trip cancellation and trip interruption as not all of these items are covered (or may only offer limited coverage as to trip duration or insured $amount in the event of a claim - sometimes as low as only $1,000 per person) by all kinds of cards.

"I was extremely pleased with my second trip through doctors-on-tour to Kenya & Tanzania - the tour was one of the most amazing things I have experienced!"
Dr. Kerri McGuire, Ottawa - Kenya & Tanzania, 2013

"I wanted to let you know that the trip to East Africa was excellent. The safari was well organized from beginning to end and John, our knowledgeable guide, unfailingly and graciously coped with all the challenges of the adventure. This was my third trip to Tanzania in the past 2 years and I came away feeling that I had finally seen the positive side to this beautiful country. We were fortunate to see far more animals than we had anticipated and the drivers took time to let us watch various scenarios play out rather than simply snapping a picture and moving quickly on. Having compared this safari to reports from others and to my previous one to the Ngorongoro Crater last year, I can honestly say that this was superior in every way. I definitely would recommend it to interested others. Thank you for organizing it."
Dr. Pat Barry, Burlington - Kenya & Tanzania, 2013

"Fantastic experience! Every detail to perfection."
Dr. Les Marien, Orangeville, On. - Spain Gourmet, 2013

And regarding your Group Leader and Medical Director, Dr. Peter Bloch, Oakville, On.

"Very well organized ! - Peter & Mary were excellent in encouraging productive and enjoyable interactions between group members which resulted in a cohesive and unified group and resulted in the whole tour unfolding smoothly"
Dr. Elizabeth Weber, Toronto - Spain, 2011

"Peter and Mary were excellent hosts (as usual). It was particularly helpful having Peter at the ATMs which seemed to mystify me. It was also wonderful having Peter talk about Chile - growing up there, his summers in Vina - our own personal tour guide!
Andrea Maurice, Toronto – Chile & Argentina, , 2012

"As usual, Dr. Peter & Mary (Bloch) were spectacular hosts. A wonderful trip!"
