CME & CULTURAL TOUR OF SOUTHERN INDIA THE SPICE TRAILS OF KERALA

February 15 - March 1, 2014

The tour...

A special gift to the world, India engages, stimulates, excites, soothes and fascinates. Our program shows you the essence of the South and introduces you to it's culture, history and ancient traditions plus it's beautiful serene landscapes, distinctive cuisine and dance art forms together with a gentle people you will never forget. Fly to Chennai (formerly Madras), the site of the first settlement of the East India Company, explore the ancient rock shore temples of Mahabalipuram and the stunning Meenakshi temple in Madurai before heading into the hill stations and tea estates of Munnar and the Western Ghats. Cruise in the Lake Periyar wildlife sanctuary, and relax in the Kerala backwaters both on a houseboat and at an ayurvedic retreat before ending at the historic capital and trading port of Kerala, Cochin with it's Portuguese, Chinese, Dutch and British influences.

The CME program.. 15 CME hours. Group Medical Director – Dr. Mel Borins, Toronto - www.melborins.com

- Academic Conference (local and Canadian presenters)
- Ayurvedic medicine presentation and hospital visits
- Therapeutic yoga session (Sivanada Centre, Chennai)
- Visit to SOS Children's Village (Chennai)
